MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to take the student-athlete where he cannot take himself.

We create an environment that teaches young men to:

1. Relentlessly pursue the ACC championship, while always embracing the highest ideals of intercollegiate athletics and staying within the academic mission of the University of Maryland.
2. Appreciate and embrace cultural diversity.
3. Grow and develop as leaders, as students, and as individuals.
4. Embrace a commitment to each other, based on honesty, integrity, and strength of character.
5. Strive to seek excellence in everything we do.

ONE HEARTBEAT

Our program is built on the premise that each person's individual integrity will be honored. The respect, affection and care existing between the players and the coaching staff will create the chemistry that will mold our football team into a family. We will operate on one heartbeat ... because we are one.

The Maryland football program will transform today's student-athlete into tomorrow's leader, by creating an environment where excellence is pursued academically, athletically, and socially.

GAMEDAY AT BYRD

The gameday experience at Byrd Stadium has a uniqueness all its own which can only be realized by becoming part of the event. The pageantry which encompasses a Saturday in the Park and a Terrapin football game are unmatched in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Events on gameday are fully interactive and enjoyed before, during and after every contest at Byrd.

TERP FANS

Maryland fans arrive early to generate the Terrapin spirit which has become a longstanding tradition throughout the campus on a beautiful autumn day. The backdrop of the campus only enhances the spirit surrounding a football game at Byrd Stadium. The revelry on campus and around the stadium has become legendary.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. As Washingtonian magazine noted in its December, 1997 issue, "...kids are turning down schools like Princeton and Virginia to go to College Park." With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. For instance, in the 1999 U.S. News and World Report rankings of graduate schools, the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 17th in the nation, the School of Public Affairs was ranked 20th, and the College of Education placed 23rd. The Maryland School of Business was ranked 26th, and also was named one of the country's 25 best business schools for entrepreneurs by Success magazine.

THERE IS NO BETTER PLACE TO BE

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

SOME PLACE SPECIAL

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.

It's all here beyond the campus.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of Byrd Stadium. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttles serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

Baltimore is just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland. Its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its national aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards, create an exciting, vibrant, holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports. The heart of Maryland, the Chesapeake Bay, is 20 miles from campus, and the state capital, Annapolis, is 30 miles away.

Campus neighbors include such important national resources as the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, the National Institutes of Health, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Center.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Playing for the Terps means competing in the Washington/Baltimore media market, the nation's fourth largest.

DID YOU KNOW?

✦ The Terps are covered extensively by two of the nation's top 10 newspapers: the Washington Post and the Baltimore Sun.

✦ USA Today, the nation's newspaper, is headquartered less than 20 miles from Byrd Stadium.

✦ The Maryland Terrapin radio network, which can be accessed up and down the East Coast, boasts one of the largest coverage areas in collegiate sports.

✦ Every major national television network — ABC, NBC, CBS and FOX — has a major news-gathering affiliate in both Washington and Baltimore. No university in the East boasts eight major news outlets within a 35-mile radius of its campus — except for the University of Maryland.

✦ ACC football will receive extensive live television coverage over the next decade, with ABC, ESPN/ESPN2 and JP Sports combining for more than 200 telecasts.

✦ The Atlantic Coast Conference was cleared on 295 radio stations during the 1998 season, totaling more than 500 hours of live game coverage.

✦ ESPN, which originated its first-ever sports telecast from the University of Maryland in 1979, has been a regular visitor to Byrd Stadium over the years.

✦ The Tyser Tower press box at Byrd Stadium seats more than 160 members of the print media on its third level and features state-of-the-art facilities for radio and television on the fourth level.

COACHING STAFF

Terp Tidbits

• One of the NCAA's most improved teams statistically in 1998, the Terrapins begin year No. 3 of the Ron Vanderlinden era in 1999.

• Prior to being named the Terps' head coach, Ron Vanderlinden (left) played a key role in helping turn around struggling programs at Northwestern and Colorado.

• Members of Maryland's coaching staff have combined to coach in a total of more than 40 postseason bowl games.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT RON VANDERLINDEN

"We needed a coach with significant success in the NCAA at the Division I level, someone who could build a football program into a champion and someone who cares about the academic success of the student-athletes. In Coach Vanderlinden, we found all of those attributes."

Deborah A. Yow
Director of Athletics
University of Maryland

"I'm on a college campus every weekend and coaches all over the country have told me that Maryland is a sleeping giant. I think Vandy is about to awaken the monster."

Tim Brant
ABC Television
Jefferson-Pilot Sports

"The year before Vanderlinden joined Bill McCartney's Colorado staff, the Buffaloes were 1-10. Six years later they were national champions. When Vanderlinden left Colorado to accompany Gary Barnett to Northwestern, they inherited a 3-8 team and the specter of 21 straight losing seasons. Four years later as Vanderlinden proudly said, 'We took the purple to Pasadena.'

Tony Kornheiser, The Washington Post

"Ron Vanderlinden learned how to be a successful coach by not just working under the best coaches college football has to offer, but by learning under the best coaches college football has to offer. One last point — his players love to play for him."

Gary Danielson
ESPN

HEAD COACH RON VANDERLINDEN

Ron Vanderlinden, who was brought in to revive Maryland's football program because of his hands-on experience in two previous highly successful reclamation projects, knows the telltale signs of improvement when he sees them.

And those signs — both on the field and off — are clearly evident to the 43-year-old Terrapin head coach as he enters year No. 3 of his rebuilding phase at the University of Maryland.

"We're bigger, stronger, faster and deeper," says Vanderlinden, referring to the progress his program has made in his two seasons at the helm. "Equally important, this group of players is united in its goal to help return Maryland football to prominence in the ACC. We made drastic strides from year one to year two with an extremely young team, and our firm belief is that our upward swing will continue in 1999."

Setting a proper foundation — one that will support and sustain an eventual turnaround — has been of paramount importance to Vanderlinden in his rebuilding efforts.

"Regardless of what you are trying to build, there are no shortcuts to doing it the right way," he says. "And we have taken no short cuts in our mission to turn this program around. I truly believe we are on the right track."

The Terps certainly made the rest of the ACC take notice last year, vaulting up a number of NCAA team statistical rankings despite fielding one of the youngest teams in the nation. The Terps last year finished as the nation's sixth most-improved rushing team and the country's 12th most-improved team in total defense even though nearly half of the players who took to the field were underclassmen.

The challenge facing Vanderlinden when he was named Maryland's 32nd head coach in December 1996 loomed large. The Terps had posted just two winning seasons in the previous 11 years and had finished no higher than fourth place in the Atlantic Coast Conference during that stretch. Moreover, he inherited a roster that, at least offensively, was built around the run-and-shoot.

It all added up to a major reconstruction project for Vanderlinden, who was selected to the post primarily for his previous experience in helping to revive dormant programs at Colorado and Northwestern (see box).

"I absolutely think Maryland should be one of the premier programs in the country," said Vanderlinden when he was introduced as the Terps' head coach. "We have a beautiful campus in a great location, first-class facilities and an impressive stadium, a supportive administration committed to winning, and a large fan base with enthusiastic boosters. These are the essential ingredients necessary for success."

Since arriving in College Park, Vanderlinden has been tireless in his efforts to awaken the Terrapins' grid fortunes, focusing on his twin goals of "graduating all of our players and winning the [conference] championship."

Those were similar goals during his days at Northwestern, where he served as Gary Barnett's assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1992-96. In that span, a moribund Northwestern program — one that hadn't posted a winning season in more than 20 years — was transformed into a two-time Big Ten Conference champion and Rose Bowl participant. The Wildcats won five league games in the first three seasons, but then went 15-1 in conference play on the way to capturing consecutive Big Ten titles in 1995 and '96. Northwestern played USC in the 1996 Rose Bowl and Tennessee in the 1997 Citrus Bowl.

At Northwestern, Vanderlinden was the chief architect of a defensive unit that in 1995 finished first nationally in scoring defense (17.2 ppg) and third nationally in turnover margin (+1.82 pg). In '96, the Wildcats finished 19th nationally in turnover margin. In addition to heading up Northwestern's defensive efforts, Vanderlinden oversaw the inside linebackers and punt return unit. The Wildcats were among the nation's top 10 punt return teams three times, finishing first in '92, fourth in '93 and ninth in '95.

During his tenure at Northwestern, Vanderlinden recruited and coached several of the most outstanding players in school history. Under his guidance, Northwestern's Pat Fitzgerald was the 1995 and '96 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and a two-time All-American. Fitzgerald also was named the Chuck Bednarik and Bronko Nagurski national defensive player of the year in '95, as well as the national defensive player of the year by Chevrolet and Sports Illustrated.

The success enjoyed on the field by the Wildcats was congruent with Vanderlinden's philosophy of high academic achievement. Northwestern earned recognition by the College Football Association as one of the exemplary academic programs in the nation.

Vanderlinden came to Northwestern after coaching Colorado's defensive line for nine years (1983-91), where he played a key role in turning around CU's program. Only three years after his arrival in Boulder as an assistant to Bill McCartney, the Buffaloes advanced to their first bowl game in nine seasons. All told, CU would make six bowl trips during Vanderlinden's final seven seasons on the staff, including the 1990 campaign, when the Buffaloes defeated Notre Dame and won the national championship.

In addition to his responsibilities coaching the defensive line, Vanderlinden also served as the Buffaloes' recruiting coordinator for two years (1985-86). While at CU, he coached three All-Americans and five first team All-Big Eight selections. From 1985-91, Colorado's defensive unit was considered among the best in the country, ranking No. 10 for fewest touchdowns allowed, 11th in fewest points allowed and 18th in total defense.

It was Vanderlinden's hands-on experience in two successful and stunning rebuilding efforts which attracted him to Maryland athletic director Deborah A. Yow.

"Ron won unanimous support of our selection committee, and that was great because he was always my top choice," said Yow. "Everyone has said that he is a dynamic coach, that he is knowledgeable, a relentless recruiter and a tireless worker. He's done twice what we want a coach to do: build up a program. And the rebuilding jobs were at good academic schools in Colorado and Northwestern. Based on those credentials, he was an early front runner."

Vanderlinden began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Bowling Green State University under Denny Stolz in 1978. He then moved on to the University of Michigan, where he was a graduate assistant in 1979 and '80 on Bo Schembechler's staff. During his time in Ann Arbor, Michigan participated in both the Gator and Rose bowls.

His first full-time coaching position came at Ball State University in 1982, where he worked with the offensive line for two years. From Ball State he moved to Colorado, then to Northwestern.

Said Bill McCartney, former head coach at Colorado: "Ron is a student of the game. He brings energy and fire to the game. I expect Maryland to be a physical and very versatile football team. I expect them to run with authority and pass with continuity. On defense, I expect they will play with an aggressive, challenging style."

Vanderlinden earned his bachelor's degree from Albion (Mich.) College in 1978. A four-year starter at center, he was a two-time first team all-conference selection, earning the honor as a junior and senior, when Albion posted undefeated seasons. Albion also participated in the first Division III playoff game in school history. He also earned three varsity letters in baseball.

A native of Livonia, Mich., Vanderlinden and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Chelsea, and a son, Reid. Vanderlinden is one of seven children born to Pete and the late Mary Vanderlinden. Pete was one of 14 children born to Belgian immigrants of Dutch descent.

"We're looking for young men who want to build the building — not simply go to a program in place, rent space and put on someone else's jersey. I'm looking for young men of character who will cherish tradition and take Maryland back to the top."

— Ron Vanderlinden, Head Coach

WALLY AKE

Defensive Coordinator
Inside Linebackers

Wally Ake, who has overseen one of the nation's most improved defensive units the past two years, is in his third season as the Terps' defensive coordinator and his second as inside linebacker coach.

Under Ake's leadership, the Terps in 1998 ranked as the 12th most-improved team in terms of total defense, according to final NCAA statistical rankings. Maryland ranked 53rd nationally in average yards allowed, a 34-position jump from the previous year. The Terps also ranked as the nation's 13th most-improved unit in points allowed and 14th most-improved team in passing defense.

Ake, who has been part of 12 bowl teams during a 19-year college coaching career, joined Ron Vanderlinden's staff in 1997 after a three-year stint as defensive coordinator at Rice University, where he helped lead the Owls to a 7-4 record and a second-place Western Athletic Conference Mountain Division finish in 1996. In 1994, Rice's defensive unit finished among the nation's top 25 in four categories as the Owls captured a share of the Southwest Conference title. In addition to coordinating Rice's defense from 1994-96, he coached the Owls' defensive line (1996) and the inside linebackers (1994-95).

The Ake family: Chris, Aaron and Wally.

Ake previously worked in the Atlantic Coast Conference when he served as Clemson's inside linebackers coach from 1990-93. Under Ake's defensive leadership, the Tigers participated in the 1993 Peach Bowl, the 1991 Citrus Bowl and the 1990 Hall of Fame Bowl. Clemson's 1990 squad ranked first in the nation in total defense, while the 1991 team was ranked No. 1 against the rush.

Prior to his stint at Clemson, Ake spent six years on the coaching staff at University of Arkansas, where he coached the defensive line from 1984-88 and the linebackers in 1989. During his time in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks captured two consecutive Southwest Conference titles (1988-89) and played in bowl games all six seasons, including the Orange Bowl (1986) and the Cotton Bowl (1988-89).

Ake, 49, is a 1972 graduate of the College of William & Mary, the same school at which he launched his college coaching career in 1979. He graduated from Falls Church (Va.) High School in 1968. He later spent five seasons on the coaching staff at Falls Church, serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 1974-77 and as head coach in 1978. After starting his college coaching career at College of William & Mary in 1979, he moved on to Arkansas as a graduate assistant in 1980 before serving a three-year stint (1981-83) as defensive line coach at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

He and his wife, Chris, have one son, Aaron.

BOB HEFFNER

Offensive Coordinator Tight Ends/Offensive Tackles

Bob Heffner, whose father, Fred, played for the Terps' national championship team in 1953, is in his third season on Maryland's coaching staff and his first as offensive coordinator. He also is responsible for the tight ends and offensive tackles.

Heffner, who brought 17 years of coaching experience with him to College Park, joined the Maryland staff after serving as offensive line coach at Northern Illinois in 1996. Heffner coached at Lafayette College for a total of five seasons on two separate occasions prior to Northern Illinois. He was Lafayette's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1993-95 and offensive line coach in 1988-89. During his time at the Easton, Pa., school, Lafayette claimed Patriot League championships in 1988 and '94.

Between his coaching stops at Lafayette, Heffner spent four years in the professional ranks. He served as the director of player personnel and offensive coordinator for the Arena League champion Tampa Bay Storm in 1993 and as offensive line and running backs coach for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

During his time with British Columbia, the Lions' Doug Flutie was voted the CFL's Most Valuable Player after setting the league record for passing yards in a season, and Jim Mills was named the league's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman in 1990 and '91.

Heffner began his collegiate coaching career with Illinois State as the interior defensive line coach in 1981 before taking over as offensive line coach during a seven-year stay with the Redbirds. Under his guidance, Illinois State had two offensive linemen earn All-American recognition and eight claim first team all-conference honors. In addition, three backs posted 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

A 1979 graduate of Temple, Heffner earned three letters as an offensive guard and played on Owl teams that made Mirage Bowl appearances in '77 and '78. He then served as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater in 1979, helping the Owls to a Garden State Bowl victory over California that same year.

Heffner, 43, and his wife, Nancy, have three daughters, Katie, Molly and Shelby.

LEVERN BELIN

Defensive Line

Levern Belin is in his first season as defensive line coach with the Terrapins following a five-year stay in a similar position at Ball State University.

Belin was named to his current post this past March after a brief stay at the University of Connecticut, where he was named the Huskies' defensive line coach in December 1998. Prior to his Connecticut move, he was stationed at Ball State, where he helped guide one of the top run defenses in the Mid-American Conference.

At Ball State, Belin coached the outside linebackers his first year before handling the defensive ends for his final four seasons. Under Belin's guidance, the Cardinals' defensive ends helped the Cardinals' defense rank first in the MAC and 34th in the nation in fewest yards allowed in 1997.

In addition, Belin helped Ball State's defense rank second in the MAC in rushing defense and scoring defense in 1996, while ranking 18th nationally in scoring defense and 26th in rushing defense. The 1996 team also ranked 32nd in the nation in total defense. Ball State's 1996 defense ranked first in the MAC in passing defense and second in scoring defense and total defense. Nationally, the Cardinals were fourth in the country in passing and total defense and 15th in scoring defense in 1995.

Belin launched his college coaching career in 1991 as a graduate assistant coach at Boston College, where he coached the defensive backs. In 1992, he was named to a full-time position on the staff at Boston University as defensive line coach. He then spent one season as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State coaching the linebackers prior to joining the staff at Ball State.

A 1991 graduate of Wake Forest, Belin was a three-year letterwinner and three-year starter at inside linebacker for the Demon Deacons under Bill Dooley from 1988-90.

MIKE GUNDY

Wide Receivers

Mike Gundy, a four-year starting quarterback at Oklahoma State who still figures prominently in the Cowboys' record book, joined Maryland's staff in 1997 as wide receivers coach.

Prior to his arrival in College Park, Gundy spent one season as an assistant coach at Baylor (1996) and six seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State (1990-95). At Baylor, Gundy was the Bears' passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach; at Oklahoma State, he started out as wide receivers coach, took over as quarterbacks coach in 1992, and was elevated to offensive coordinator in 1994.

During his four seasons as a starting QB at Oklahoma State (1986-89), Gundy established most major school passing records and finished his career as the Big Eight's all-time leader in total offense. A three-year team captain, Gundy led the Cowboys to a cumulative record of 29-14 as a starter. Major school records set by Gundy included passing yards in a game (429) and season (2,203); career (58.3 percent) and season (64.8 percent) completion percentage; and completions in a game (27) and season (170).

Gundy, who shared the same backfield with two of football's greatest tailbacks (Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas), helped lead the Cowboys to back-to-back 10-2 seasons in 1987 and '88. Oklahoma State defeated West Virginia in the '87 Sun Bowl and Wyoming in the '88 Holiday Bowl. His 2,163 passing yards in '87 ranked him second in the NCAA. That same year, Oklahoma State led the nation in touchdowns (70) and points scored (522). Gundy was selected to play in the 1990 Japan Bowl following his senior season.

The 32-year-old Gundy and his wife, Kristen, have one son, Gavin. Gundy's brother, Cale, was a four-year starting quarterback at Oklahoma.

CRAIG JOHNSON

QUARTERBACKS

Craig Johnson, who coached alongside Ron Vanderlinden during the resurgence of Northwestern's football program, is in his third season as the Terps' quarterbacks coach.

A former starting quarterback at the University of Wyoming, Johnson in 1997 tutored Brian Cummings, whose completion percentage (60.4%) was the seventh-best in University of Maryland history. At Northwestern, he oversaw the Wildcat quarterbacks for five seasons, including quarterback Steve Schnur, who was the Big Ten's pass efficiency champion in 1996, and Len Williams, who finished his career as the fifth-leading passer in conference history. All told, he coached three Wildcat quarterbacks to All-Big Ten honors in five seasons.

Johnson has coached on four teams that advanced to bowl games, including Northwestern squads that played in the 1996 Rose and 1997 Citrus bowls. He also coached in the 1985 Peach Bowl while at Army and the 1984 Liberty Bowl while at Arkansas.

The Johnson family: Shelby, Craig, Sydney and Darlene.

Prior to his stint at Northwestern, Johnson served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons (1989-91) at Virginia Military Institute. During that time, the VMI offense ranked fifth nationally in total offense in 1990 and first nationally in rushing offense in 1991. VMI's quarterback, Tony Scales, ended his career as the second-leading rusher among quarterbacks in Division I-AA history.

Johnson entered the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wyoming, in 1983. After one season on the Cowboys' staff, he joined Arkansas' program as a graduate assistant in 1984, when the Razorbacks played in the Liberty Bowl. In 1985, he was a part-time assistant running backs coach at Army. Johnson then moved on to Rutgers, where he served as running backs coach for three seasons (1986-88).

Johnson was a three-year letterwinner as a quarterback at Wyoming, throwing for more than 1,100 yards and seven touchdowns in a starting role his senior season of 1982.

Johnson, 39, and his wife, Darlene, have two daughters, Shelby and Sydney.

MIKE LOCKSLEY

Running Backs/ Recruiting Coordinator

Mike Locksley, who helped oversee one of the country's most improved rushing units last year, is in his third season in charge of Maryland's running backs. Last season, the Terps registered the nation's sixth-biggest jump in rushing yards per game, nearly doubling their output from the previous season, and tailback LaMont Jordan earned second team All-ACC honors.

Two years ago under Locksley's tutelage, Jordan broke most major Maryland freshman rushing standards on way to finishing runner-up for ACC Rookie of the Year honors.

Locksley also serves as the Terps' recruiting coordinator.

Born Christmas Day 1969 in Washington, D.C., Locksley is a 1992 graduate of Towson University, where he was a three-year starter in the Tigers' backfield from 1988-91. Locksley, who started one year at cornerback and two at safety, was named his team's defensive MVP as a senior. He finished 19th on the school's all-time tackles list. Locksley also was a member of Towson's basketball team during the 1991-92 season.

A graduate of Towson in business administration, Locksley began his coaching career overseeing special teams and defensive backs at his alma mater in 1992. He moved on to the Naval Prep Academy in Newport, R.I., where he served as defensive coordinator, defensive line coach and head track and field coach.

In 1995, Locksley was named an assistant coach at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., where he oversaw the outside linebackers and special teams. He then returned to the East Coast, accepting a position coaching the wide receivers and tight ends at Army. During his one-year stint at Army, the Cadets defeated rival Navy and appeared in the Independence Bowl. At Army, he helped develop tight end Ron Leshinski, who earned All-East honors.

Locksley, 29, and his wife, Kia, have three sons, Mike, Jr., Meiko and Kai, and a daughter, Kori.

DOUG MALLORY

Defensive Backs

Doug Mallory, an honorable mention All-American safety during his playing days at Michigan, joined the Maryland coaching staff in 1997 after spending the previous three seasons coaching the defensive backs and special teams at Indiana University.

Under Mallory's guidance, Maryland's 1998 secondary showed tremendous improvement statistically, ranking as the country's 14th most improved unit in NCAA pass efficiency defense ratings. The Terps picked off 13 passes last season, including an ACC- and school-record tying seven in a road win vs. Duke.

Son of former Indiana head coach Bill Mallory, Doug is in his 12th season coaching at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant at Indiana before taking an assistant coaching job for one season (1989) at Army. He then moved on to Western Kentucky for a four-year stay, spending his last two seasons as defensive coordinator. Under his guidance, the Hilltoppers' defense finished 18th nationally in final statistical rankings in 1993.

The Mallory family: Emily, Doug, Sarah, Lisa and Allison.

As a player, Mallory totaled 182 tackles and six interceptions at Michigan during his four-year career. The Wolverines played in four major bowl games — the Sugar, Holiday, Fiesta and Rose — and shared the 1986 Big Ten championship during his five-year stay. As a senior co-captain, he earned second team All-Big Ten honors and honorable mention Associated Press All-America recognition after finishing second on the team in tackles (71).

A 1988 graduate of Michigan with a degree in sports management and communications, Mallory, 34, and his wife, Lisa, have three daughters, Emily, Allison and Sarah.

DANNY ROCCO

Outside Linebackers

Danny Rocco is in his second season as the Terps' outside linebacker coach after spending the previous four seasons on the coaching staff at the University of Texas

Last season, his first at Maryland, Rocco was responsible for two of the team's top tacklers — linebackers Aaron Thompson (87 tackles) and Peter Timmins (84).

Rocco, who served on John Mackovic's staff at Texas, coached the outside linebackers his first three seasons with the Longhorns and served as defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator in 1997. The Longhorns won the inaugural Big 12 championship game in 1996 and played in three bowls during his stay, including the Fiesta, Sugar and Sun.

The Rocco family: Julie, David, Amy and Danny.

Before joining Texas' staff, he was the defensive line coach at Boston College (1991-93), outside linebackers/strong safeties coach at Tulsa (1988-90), assistant inside linebackers coach at Colorado (1987), and defensive line coach at Wake Forest (1986). He also spent the 1984 and '85 seasons on Wake's staff as a graduate assistant. At Boston College, he served under former Golden Eagles coach Tom Coughlin, and helped BC to back-to-back bowl appearances.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Rocco played two seasons at Penn State before transferring to Wake Forest. At Penn State, he earned a pair of letters and played in the 1979 Liberty Bowl and the 1980 Fiesta Bowl. At Wake Forest, he was a two-year starting linebacker and team captain in 1983.

All told, Rocco has participated in nine bowl games as a player and coach.

Rocco is a 1984 graduate of Wake Forest with a bachelor's degree in speech communication. He earned his master's in education and counseling in 1987.

Part of a football coaching family, Rocco's father, Frank, is an assistant athletic director at Penn State and was a successful high school coach in Western Pennsylvania prior to joining Joe Paterno's staff at Penn State in 1982. His brother, Frank, Jr., is a former Penn State quarterback who currently is the athletic director and head football coach at Pittsburgh Shaler High School. His younger brother, David, is an assistant football coach at Pine Crest High School in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Rocco and his wife, Julie, have a son, David, and a daughter, Amy.

ELLIOT UZELAC

Centers/Guards

Elliot Uzelac, a former major college head coach who is considered one of the top offensive line technicians in the country, joined Ron Vanderlinden's staff in February 1998 to oversee offensive centers and guards.

In his first season on Maryland's staff, the Terrapins ranked as the nation's sixth most-improved rushing team in addition to greatly reducing the number of quarterback sacks allowed.

The 58-year-old Uzelac brought 31 years of coaching experience with him to College Park — 30 at the collegiate level and one in the NFL. He most recently served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota in 1997.

Prior to Minnesota, he worked the 1995 and '96 seasons as associate head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Kentucky, where he oversaw a Wildcats' unit that committed just 16 turnovers in '95, fewest in school history. In addition, the Wildcats' 30 touchdowns in 1995 were the most since 1984 and the 24 rushing TD's were the most since 1974. The Wildcats' 1995 roster included tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, established three SEC records and set 15 school marks that season.

From 1993-94, he served as offensive coordinator at Colorado, directing a CU unit that led the Big Eight in total offense both seasons and set or tied 55 school records. Colorado's 1994 offense was led by Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam and Kordell Stewart.

A 1964 graduate of Western Michigan, Uzelac also has coached for the Cleveland Browns (1992), Ohio State (1991), Indiana (1990), Navy (head coach 1987-89, assistant coach 1971-72), Michigan (1982-86, 1973-74), Western Michigan (head coach 1975-81), and Bowling Green (1968-70, 1965). Among the coaches he has served under include Bo Schembechler, Bill McCartney, Don Nehlen and Bill Mallory.

During his seven seasons as head coach at Western Michigan, he guided his alma mater to more Mid-American Conference victories than any coach in school history to that point. He was named MAC Coach of the Year in 1976. Uzelac later served a three-year stint as head coach at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Uzelac earned a master's degree in physical education from Bowling Green in 1966. He and his wife, Wendy, have two children, Lisa and Nick, and one granddaughter, Jordan.

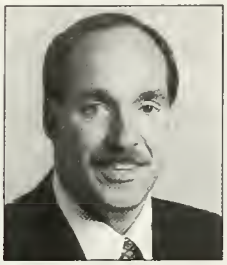
DWIGHT GALT

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dwight Galt, a member of the Terps' strength staff since 1989, is in his sixth year as Maryland's head strength and conditioning coach. His responsibilities include managing the department's three training facilities and coordinating strength and conditioning programs for the Terps' 25 varsity sports, with special emphasis on football and men's basketball.



Galt, who earned his bachelor's degree in business management (1981) and his master's degree in exercise physiology (1989) from the University of Maryland, is certified by the International Sports Science Association. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the United States Powerlifting Federation.

During his time in College Park, he has worked with a number of teams which have advanced to national postseason play, including the 1984 ACC and Sun Bowl championship football team, and the Terps' 1985, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 NCAA men's basketball tournament teams.

The 42-year-old Galt and his wife, Jan, have four children: Angie, Teri, Dwight IV and Tom.

The Galt family (clockwise from lower left): Teri, Tom, Dwight, Jan, Dwight IV and Angie.

TODD HOBIN

Director of Video Services

Todd Hobin, the ACC's co-video coordinator of the year in 1998-99, is in his eighth season as Maryland's director of video services. Hobin's video expertise allows him to service the Terps' football program from his state-of-the-art lab in the football building.

Hobin and his staff videotape all of the Terps' football practices and games and then employ a sophisticated editing system to break down the footage for use by the coaches.

Prior to being named the Terps' director of video services, Hobin was on the coaching staff at Cornell for three years (1989-91). During his stint with the Big Red, he helped coach the running backs and served as the freshman team's offensive coordinator. In 1990, the Big Red won the Ivy League championship. Before joining the Cornell staff, he served on the staff at Ithaca College as an assistant defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator for the junior varsity. Ithaca captured the 1988 Division III national championship.

A native of Holland Patent, N.Y., Hobin graduated cum laude from Cortland State, where he was a three-year letterman at running back and punter. Hobin transferred to Cortland State from Hamilton College, where he spent one season as the team's starting free safety.

The Hobin family: Todd, Bryce and Candice.

TOM DEAHN

Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

Tom Deahn was named assistant recruiting coordinator this past March following a five-year stint at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., where he spent time as assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

During each of the last three seasons, Dean's offenses at St. Norbert set school records for single-season all-purpose yards while ranking among the national statistical leaders. Prior to his arrival at St. Norbert, he spent three years at Catholic University in Washington, D.C., where he was the recruiting coordinator while handling offensive line and defensive coordinator duties during his stay. Catholic's defense ranked second in the country in 1993. He played collegiately at Heidelberg College in Ohio.

The Deahn family: Tom, Amanda and Dawn.

Deahn and his wife, Dawn, have a daughter, Amanda.

MATT HACHMANN

Director of Football Operations

Matt Hachmann joined the University of Maryland football program in March as director of football operations after spending the previous two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Hachmann, 27, is a 1993 graduate of the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn., where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing while lettering in football as an offensive lineman and lettering in baseball. Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Hachmann spent two years as a graduate assistant coach at Northern Illinois University in addition to earning his master's degree in sports management at NIU.

At Maryland, Hachmann's administrative responsibilities with the Terps include daily management of the football program, including operations, team travel and schedule coordination.

Hachmann and his wife, Kimberly, have a daughter, Rien (3).

JOHN DIGNAN

Graduate Assistant

John Dignan is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach with the Terrapins. Dignan will work with the defensive coaching staff, concentrating his efforts on the secondary.

A three-year letter-man at linebacker during his playing days Michigan State, Dignan was an All-Academic Big Ten selection in 1990 and 1991 while with the Spartans.

Prior to accepting his current assignment at the University of Maryland, Dignan was a teacher and football coach in the Ypsilanti (Mich.) public school system in 1996. He also has worked in the public school systems in Detroit and Belleville, Mich. He earned bachelor's degrees in social sciences (1994) and communications (1993) from Michigan State.

Dignan has spent time as a volunteer at Eastern Michigan University youth camps and was a player/coach for a French/American football team in Paris. He is currently working on master's degrees in history at Eastern Michigan University and in social science at Wayne State University.

ANDREW HOFFMAN

Graduate Assistant

Andrew Hoffman joined the Maryland coaching staff as a graduate assistant coach this past June and will work primarily with the Terrapins' offensive line.

A 1990 graduate of John Carroll University in Cleveland, Hoffman has spent the past seven seasons as an assistant coach at Washington University in St. Louis, working with the offensive line, linebackers and defensive line. He also spent six years as the team's recruiting coordinator in addition to serving as an assistant track and field coach and assistant strength coach. Washington University won three conference titles during his seven seasons as an assistant.

He previously was a defensive line coach in 1990 and 1991 at Allegheny College in Pennsylvania, helping the Gators to a Division III national title in 1990.

As a student-athlete, Hoffman was a four-year letterman and an all-league selection during his playing career at John Carroll.

He is married to the former Tracie Green.

TERRAPIN RECRUITING VOLUNTEERS

The Terrapin Recruiting Volunteers are a group of undergraduates dedicated to helping the Maryland football program win the ACC title. The organization works year-round assisting the coaching staff in a variety of ways, including recruiting and special events such as Open House, Academic Day, and Junior Day. Members of the Terrapin Recruiting Volunteers often help at alumni events and in the football office. The group meets regularly and attends one road game together. Anyone interested in joining the Terrapin Recruiting Volunteers should contact Tom Deahn at (301) 314-9930.

1999 SEASON OUTLOOK

University of Maryland enters its third season of the Ron Vanderlinden era with continued expectations of improvement and visions of upward movement in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings.

Strapped with a depleted roster in years one and two of his rebuilding efforts at Maryland, Vanderlinden built heavily with freshmen and sophomores, resulting in one of the youngest and most inexperienced Division I starting lineups in the country. Maryland routinely employed more than 20 freshmen and sophomores on its two-deep last season, starting as many as eight underclassmen in all but one game of 1998.

Those classes, now sophomores and juniors, are buoyed by one of the Terrapins' most successful recruiting efforts in recent years, and Vandy and the Terps look excitedly to the 1999 campaign, anticipating continuity, greater experience and depth to result in improvement in the Terps' grid fortunes.

Utilizing a bolstered offensive attack which features a quick-hitting, explosive running game, Maryland was one of the most improved rushing teams in the nation. Its running game was the sixth-most improved of all Division I teams from 1997. Further, the defense echoed those same improvement numbers, ranking among the top 15 most improved teams nationally in total defense, scoring defense and passing defense. Where Maryland's average score differential in 1997 was 17.7, it plummeted to just 8.0 last season, as the Terps challenged virtually every opponent into the fourth quarter.

The goal before the Terps, now, is simple. Continue to transfer those improvement numbers from yardage into points and, ultimately, victories.

Brad Messina (left), Randall Jones (center) and Jason Hatala (right) will all be key performers on offense.

Quarterbacks

Unlike a year ago when no true starter was established after the 1997 season, the Terps entered spring 1999 with an incumbent starter intact. Like last spring and fall, however, an interesting competition is expected — this season between sophomore Randall Jones and redshirt freshman Calvin McCall. Jones started four games in 1998, and played in 10, while asserting himself as the team's starting QB late in the season. He brought new athleticism to Maryland's quarterback position and aided in minimizing negative yardage due to the Terps' former dropback passing game.

"Randall showed steady improvement in running the offense and developing as a passer," says Vanderlinden of Jones. "He also displayed the tremendous ability to run with the football when the opportunity presented itself."

Leading the competition with Jones is the highly-touted McCall, who some thought coming into the Maryland camp last season was the most talented of all of Maryland's quarterbacks. Tall, at 6-3, and athletically gifted, McCall is presumed to be a more explosive passer. He learned the offense during the 1998 season as the third-team QB, but never saw action.

"Calvin emerged from spring practice a very close No. 2 to Randall. Both young quarterbacks have improved significantly during their first year at the University of Maryland," says Vanderlinden.

Senior Trey Evans, who tore his anterior cruciate ligament in his knee last August while competing for the starting job, is on the road to complete recovery and competing for the post again. He saw action in all 11 games of 1997 as a holder for placement kicks, but threw just one pass.

Other competitors in the quarterback chase are redshirt sophomores Gil Harris and Erik Lipton, who saw time last season on scout teams, and incoming freshman Latrez Harrison, one of the nation's top prep QB's last year.

Adds Vanderlinden, "Latrez is a very highly regarded freshman who will be given an opportunity to work into the quarterback depth this fall."

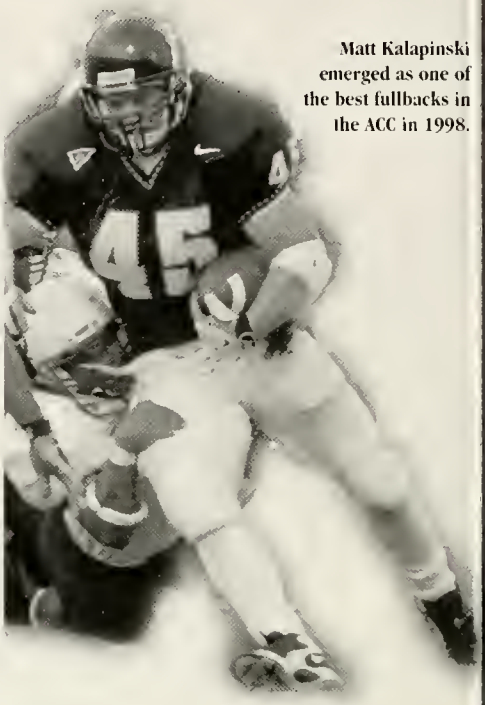
Running Backs

The running back position has continued to blossom with juniors LaMont Jordan and Matt Kalapinski forming one of the most powerful, quick-hitting tandems on the East Coast.



Matt Kalapinski emerged as one of the best fullbacks in the ACC in 1998.

Jordan, halfway to the Maryland school rushing record after two seasons, has put together seven 100-yard rushing games in his freshman and sophomore seasons. Meanwhile, as Jordan has ranked among ACC rushing leaders for two years, Kalapinski quietly bulled his way among ACC leaders a year ago while averaging 4.9 yards per carry. Between them, the duo has started 27 games in the last two seasons, with still two years to go.

Jordan, at tailback, finished third in the ACC in rushing with 906 yards in barely 10 games of action, and just missed becoming the fourth player in Terp history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He developed a knack for the long-gainer late in the season, ripping off runs of 39, 46, 49 and 50 yards in his last three games. Overall, he averaged 33.5 yards on his six TD runs in 1998.

"LaMont combines size and speed, which makes it difficult for defenses to contain him," says Vanderlinden.

At fullback, Kalapinski emerged in 1998 as "one of the league's best," according to Vanderlinden. He was second among Terrapin rushers with 388 yards on 75 carries. He rambled for 87 yards on eight carries at Virginia, and 80 yards on 11 runs the following week at West Virginia to quickly establish Maryland's new emphasis on powering the ball up the field.

Most impressive among Terp backups has been one-time walk-on Mookie Sikyala, who enters the fall season No. 2 behind Jordan after an impressive spring at tailback. He transferred two seasons ago from Tuskegee University.

"Mookie displayed the elusiveness to make defenders miss," says Vanderlinden, "and the speed to go the distance on several occasions."

Senior tailback Harold Westley carried 78 times for 296 yards and started early games last season. The three-year veteran boasts career numbers of 200 carries and 710 yards for a 3.6 average. Westley is listed No. 3 on the tailback depth chart, just ahead of newcomer Gavin DeFreitas – a former 1,000-yard rusher at Western Maryland College who enters Maryland as a fifth-year senior walk-on. Another who should figure into the depth picture at tailback is freshman Bruce Perry, last season's Philadelphia-area offensive player of the year.

"We have experience with Westley and DeFreitas in our backfield," says Vanderlinden. "Westley brings outstanding speed to the position, while DeFreitas brings size and natural ability to hit the open hole."

Behind Kalapinski are sophomore Marc Riley, senior Kenny Rogers and redshirt freshman Chad Killian. Riley entered the program as a tailback last season, and with improved size and strength will work at the fullback position this season, also.

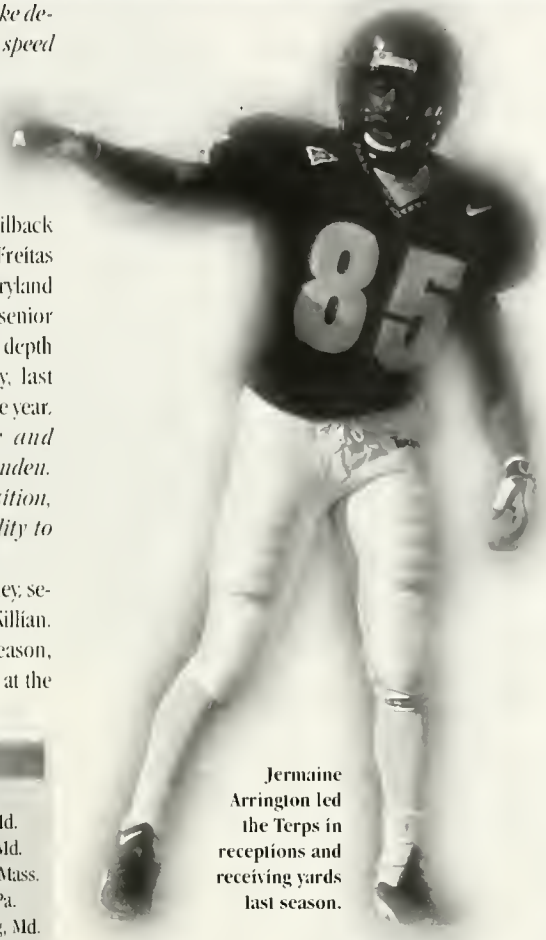
Wide Receivers

Also in place are the Terps' top three receivers from last season – Jermaine Arrington, Moises Cruz and Jason Hatala.

"All three of our starting wide receivers have the speed to get deep and the ability to run with the ball after the reception," says Vanderlinden while assessing his top receiving trio. "The wide receiver position may be the deepest position on our football team. We have a lot of people who can make plays."

Cruz, Maryland's top receiver over the last two seasons combined, averaged 12.2 yards per catch with 15 receptions and 183 yards in 1998. The speedster Arrington, meanwhile, came to the Terps as a former track star at Memphis and immediately made his impact felt. Arrington caught 23 balls a year ago for 366 yards and a 15.9 average. He was the Terps' leading receiver and kickoff return man in 1998, ranking third in Maryland history with 18.62 all-purpose yards per play.



Jermaine Arrington led the Terps in receptions and receiving yards last season.

Junior Jason Hatala was consistent among the Terps' rotation, hauling in 10 aerials for 94 yards, as was fellow junior Omar Cheeseboro, who plucked seven passes for 88 yards. In 1997, Cheeseboro led all Terrapin receivers with four touchdowns. Sophomore Guilian Gary has displayed the potential to compete for significant playing time in 1999.

Adds Vanderlinden, "Guilian served mainly as our punt returner last year. He had an outstanding spring and should be a big part of the Terps' passing attack. He has size, speed and elusiveness. Omar has always displayed the ability to make big plays. He and Guilian may be the surprises at wide receiver this fall."

Incoming freshmen Scooter Monroe and Jafar Williams, and 1997 letterwinner Doug Patterson, are also among receiving corps contenders.

Tight Ends

Another position of depth. Back are 1998 starter John Waerig and backups Eric James and Matt Murphy, along with 1997 starter Mike Hull. The tight end position perhaps most aptly defines Vanderlinden's power philosophy while adapting from the run-and-shoot scheme of three years ago.

The advent of the tight end at Maryland has helped transform the Terp offensive unit into a more versatile, more powerful offense. Hull gave way last season to Wisconsin transfer Waerig, who established himself as one of the league's most dominant blockers. Waerig also hauled in 12 catches for 130 yards. He had catches in five straight games to end the 1998 season, and had seven for 90 yards in the final three games, alone.

Says Vanderlinden, "John is one of the ACC's best blocking tight ends, and was quickly emerging as a receiving threat during the second half of the '98 season. He became one of Randall Jones' favorite targets."

In fact, Waerig was the only tight end to catch a pass in 1998, but James and Murphy, both just redshirt sophomores, saw increased playing time as the season progressed. Maryland implemented a two-tight end formation at times as the tight end drew more and more attention in the Terps' changing and improving attack.

"James and Murphy both saw playing time last year and both have the potential to develop into good ACC tight ends," says Vanderlinden. "Eric is a very capable tight end and should see considerable action as Maryland's second tight end this season. All three backups have improved greatly and figure prominently in our offensive plans."

Offensive Line

Instrumental in Maryland's rushing improvement last season, and obviously credited with a drop in sacks, was the play of the Terps' offensive line. And now, it is on the offensive line that lies perhaps Maryland's greatest experience. As Maryland enters 1999, four starters return with only the hole at right tackle to be filled after the loss of graduated senior John Feugill. Seniors Brad Messina and Jamie Wu, the Terps' elder statesmen of the offensive line, boast 38 combined starts.

Messina heads the cast as he enters his senior campaign with 21 career starts over the last two seasons. A starter at left guard in 1997, he switched to left tackle a year ago and now is tabbed the Terps' most experienced and versatile lineman.

"Brad Messina has the ability to be an All-ACC player. He has the size, strength and athleticism to be one of the ACC's most dominant blockers," says Vanderlinden, who returns more linemen this year than in either of his previous seasons. "And Jamie Wu has made steady improvement for us. He is expected to provide strong leadership and consistent performance again in 1999."

Wu started all 11 games last season alongside Feugill on the right side of the line. At the opposite guard was Mike George, who capably started in 10 games as a redshirt freshman, and returns for his sophomore year. The other redshirt freshman who made probably the most striking impact was Melvin Fowler, Jr., whose starting assignment at center was drawn just two weeks after his switch from the defensive line. Fowler helped stabilize the position, and the line, while starting all 11 games and helping boost the production of the entire offense. Fowler, who injured a shoulder late in the season, missed spring ball due to surgery in December.

"Melvin moved to center just 10 practices prior to the first game in 1998 and made steady improvement," says Vanderlinden. "He definitely has the ability to develop into an All-ACC performer during his career at Maryland, combining size, athleticism and football awareness."

Added to the mix this season are a pair of junior backups, five redshirt freshmen and sophomores, and incoming freshmen Lamar Bryant and Ed Tyler.

Tim Howard and Brett Trammell both are junior tackles who have seen limited playing time through two seasons. Trammell is slated to back up Messina. Howard and redshirt freshman Matt Crawford will compete for the starting right tackle position, vacated by Feugill.

Redshirt sophomore Chris Snader enters fall camp as a reserve at left guard. Redshirt freshmen Bob Krantz and Sam Marvis fill roles at right guard and center, respectively. Joining the cast at center is converted tight end and redshirt freshman Todd Wike, who helped fill the position during spring with the absence of Fowler. Wike's size and quickness helped spur a successful transition, moving him into contention with Marvis for the No. 2 spot on the depth chart.

Defensive Line

Three starters return among four front positions for the Terps, who were among the nation's most improved teams in total defense, scoring defense and passing defense. Returning senior Delbert Cowsette has made 22 consecutive starts and came into his own last season as the Terps' third-leading tackler. He leads a returning trio that includes 1998 sacks leader Peter Timmins and standout junior Kris Jenkins. Between them, the trio has earned eight letters and started 43 games.

Says Vanderlinden, "Cowsette is one of our veterans after starting in 1997 and 1998. Del had four games with double digit tackles and will again be our leader up front. He has All-ACC potential and anchors what should be a strong defensive line in 1998."

With Cowsette, Timmins and Jenkins, part-time starter Charles Hill and 1997 starter Erwyn Lyght, the Terps' defensive line not only employs depth similar to its offensive counterparts, but should prove competitive for playing time.

Adds Vandy, "This position should be competitive. Our young players performed well last year and showed a lot of potential for the future. Timmins was a definite bright spot for us last year, and he should have an outstanding senior year. He has added size and strength which should prove to be an asset to his conversion to defensive end."

Together, Cowsette and Timmins ranked third and fifth on the team in tackles last season, with 96 and 84 total tackles, respectively. Both recorded six tackles for loss while Timmins posted 5.5 sacks to three for Cowsette.

Cowsette starts at the nose position and is backed by redshirt junior Jon Watkins and redshirt freshman Todd Bradley.

Jenkins started eight games at the other tackle last season before missing the final three games with a pinched nerve in his shoulder. In his place, however, was true freshman Charles Hill, a sophomore in 1999, who played well and should challenge for a starting spot. Jenkins totaled 36 tackles while Hill, a part-timer through most of the season, finished with 16 in his first college season.

"Jenkins has the size, strength and speed to be an outstanding player, and Hill displayed the ability and mobility to prove he can be a good player in the ACC," says Vanderlinden.

Timmins anchors the defensive end position after helping to improve Maryland's sack numbers only a year after moving from a brief experiment with the Terp offense in 1997. In his first year on the line, Timmins started all 11 games as the Terps' rush linebacker/end, but was moved to defensive end last spring – filling the void left by Rasheed Simmons' graduation and making room for a quicker and very athletic Lyght as the rush end. Lyght, who started nine games with 62 tackles in 1997, suffered an injury during the '98 spring and returned late last fall to see limited action in seven games as Timmins' backup. He is called by Vanderlinden, "one of Maryland's strongest and fastest players."

Redshirt freshmen William Shimé and Durrane Roundtree are expected to add to the depth on the defensive line, and both could play either end or interior positions. True freshmen Scott Smith and Eric Dumas may also provide backup help on the interior defensive line.

Delbert Cowsette has All-ACC potential as a senior.

Peter Timmins will continue to lead the Terps' sack brigade as a senior.

Linebackers

Gone are All-ACC performers Eric Barton and Kendall Ogle who last year were no doubt the soul of the Terrapin defense. Barton was a fifth-round draft choice of the Oakland Raiders; Ogle a sixth-rounder by the Cleveland Browns.

First and second among Terp tacklers for the last two seasons, the Barton-Ogle tandem is gone, and in their place are several youngsters ready to make their mark on the Maryland program.

"The main challenge on defense," acknowledges Vanderlinden, "is to replace Eric Barton and Kendall Ogle."

Heading the cast this season, however, is sophomore standout Aaron Thompson who a year ago came in to start all 11 games beside the Barton-Ogle duo. Thompson anchors the outside linebacking post after registering 87 stops last season, good for 7.9 tackles per game. He led Maryland with nine tackles for loss while adding a sack, a pass break-up, and causing a pair of fumbles.

"Aaron has the ability and potential to develop into an All-ACC performer at linebacker. He has made an immediate impact on our program," says Vanderlinden.

Joining the Baltimore native on the outside is another redshirt sophomore, Ryan Swift, who teamed with Thompson in a 1-2 capacity last season. Swift played in all 11 games and was also a valuable contributor on special teams. Swift could also see time with Erwyn Lyght as the Terps' rush end. Thompson and Swift are joined on the depth chart by true sophomore Corey Smith.

Erwyn Lyght is expected to be one of the Terps' top defenders.

Backing Ogle last year was Marlon Moore, now a sophomore, who saw action in all 11 games and who emerged from spring practice as the apparent starter as the whip linebacker. Competing with Moore is sophomore Reggie Lewis who saw brief playing time a year ago as a redshirt freshman.

Vying for Barton's vacated spot at the strong inside spot are sophomore Monté Graves and redshirt freshman E.J. Henderson.

Says Vanderlinden of Graves and Henderson, "Both have displayed the knack for getting to the football, a rugged style of play, and the speed and movement to pick up where Eric Barton left off. They'll enter fall practice with equal chance to be named our starter at that position."

Maryland signed four linebackers last spring – freshmen Leroy Ambush, Bernie Fiddler and Leon Joe, and sophomore transfer Kevin Bishop from South Florida.

Adds Vandy, "All four will have an opportunity to compete for playing time at one of our three linebacker positions."

Secondary

One of Maryland's more improved areas a year ago is one that improves again in 1999.

"The secondary could be one of Maryland's strengths in 1999," states Vanderlinden.

The biggest addition for the defensive secondary is the return of Lewis Sanders, who was Maryland's best defensive player during the 1997 season. The Terrapins' fastest player, he was injured during the final game of 1997 and redshirted the 1998 campaign. Sanders shifts from his free safety post of two years ago to fill a corner slot vacated last spring by the graduation of Cliff Crosby.

Sanders, a junior, posted 74 tackles with four interceptions in '97 and plays opposite Renard Cox who was tabbed the Terps' most improved player last spring.

1999 SEASON OUTLOOK

Lewis Sanders returns to the Terps after missing last season with an injury.

Cox is a senior who saw regular action a year ago as a JC transfer filling roles both at safety and corner. He battles a promising youngster in sophomore Tony Okanlawon who won a starting post midway through his freshman campaign, and wound up recording six starts with 39 tackles. Cox finished his inaugural campaign with 15 tackles, an interception and two pass breakups.

Backing Sanders is senior Bryn Boggs, whose productive efforts resulted in six interceptions during spring drills.

Safety slots are maintained by returning starter Shawn Forte and spring standout Tony Jackson. Forte, a junior, recorded 64 tackles and an interception from his strong safety post last season. Jackson, a junior who also picked six passes during spring drills, used his spring production to move ahead of sophomore Rod Littles on the depth chart. Littles was a projected starter on a pre-spring depth chart and should compete for considerable time as a true sophomore. Jackson and Littles both drew starting safety assignments in 1998.

"Forte has the ability to emerge as one of the ACC's better safeties while combining size, speed and growing awareness. Shawn made steady improvement during the 1998 season," says Vanderlinden, "and displayed the ability to make awareness plays during the last third of the season. He has a great deal of potential."

Of Jackson, Vanderlinden adds, "Tony has always played with good football awareness."

Both Cox and redshirt freshman Tyrone Stewart could see backup time at either safety position. True freshmen Ed Simms, Andrew Smith, Jr. and Curome Cox will all have the opportunity to work into Maryland's depth picture in the secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior Brian Kopka returns for his third season as Maryland's starting kicker, and is a top candidate for Lou Groza Award consideration. Kopka had a string of 10 consecutive field goals at one point, including four from 40 yards or longer, last season. His 12 field goals last season helped move him among Maryland career leaders after just two seasons, and his 10 field goals through September ranked tops in the country. Kopka's only miss inside of 45 yards last year was blocked vs. Florida State, and he converted 22 of 2[illegible] extra-point attempts.

Sean Starner, a backup in 1998, is ready to take over the punting job for the Terps. Long-snapper Scott Rudolph returns for his third consecutive season, and is one of the ACC's better long snappers.

OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Chad Scott with the Maryland Terrapins.

Important to any college program are walk-on players. Walk-on players not only make a difference in aiding a team's depth and continuity, but walk-on players can also earn their own scholarship and bid for significant playing time.

Take the case of Chad Scott, for instance. After playing two seasons at Towson State in 1993 and 1994, Scott chose to walk-on at Maryland, uninvited. By the close of his first semester on campus, Scott was awarded a scholarship and he became a Terrapin co-captain for his senior year in 1996. The rest, as they say, is history. Scott was a first round pick in the 1997 NFL draft and, now, is chasing defenders and intercepting passes for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Chad Scott exemplifies the ultimate walk-on portfolio. However, every season at the University of Maryland, there are walk-on players who find their niche and contribute greatly to the Terrapin program. With recent scholarship reductions, walk-on players have become a vital component to the rebuilding of Maryland football fortunes.

Another example is Terp receiver Jermaine Arrington who walked-on and was the Terps' leading wide receiver in 1998. The former track star leads a cast of three top receivers into the 1999 season.

Arrington is one of several current Maryland players who attended as walk-ons, with the opportunity to make a difference. Among a few of the notables found on the Terps' preseason depth chart are tailbacks Mookie Sikyala and Gavin DeFreitas, linebackers Monté Graves and Corey Smith, free safety Daryl Whitmer, defensive end Eric Calendine and two-year starting long-snapper Scott Rudolph. With Arrington, each of these seven original walk-on players are expected to make significant contributions to the 1999 Maryland football team.

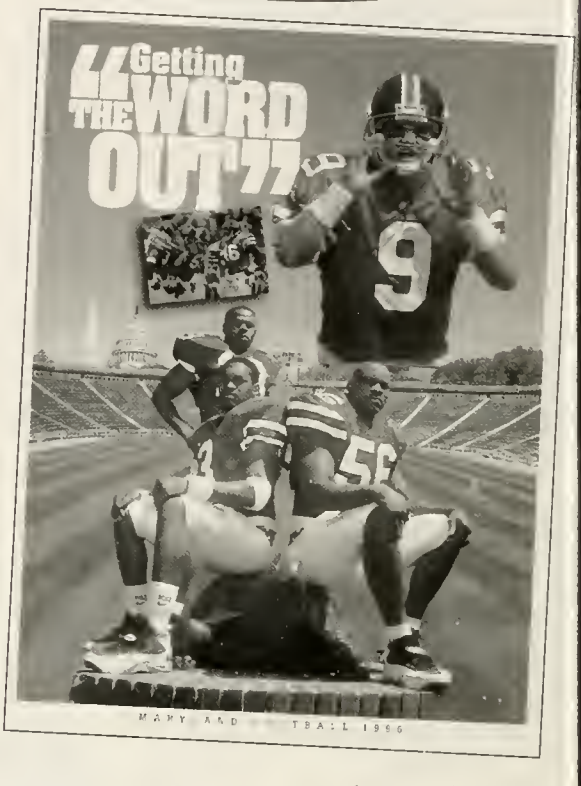
From Walk-Ons To Cover Boys



Scott (3) became a team captain in 1996 and graced the Maryland media guide cover that season (above). Three years later, Arrington (85) finds himself on the '99 cover (below).

Jamie Wu

Wu Up Close

My goal for 1999 is to: go to a bowl game

The best advice I've ever received is: "There's no such thing as a bad day at the golf course."

If I lost all my possessions except one, I'd want to keep: my golf clubs

My craziest ambition is: to go to the Olympics for the shot put and discus

If I could change one thing in the world, it would be: to add more golf courses

Who would I most like to meet? my grandfathers

1999 BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Starting in 1999, the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) determined the Division I-A national champion in football. A year ago, Tennessee's Volunteers defeated the Seminoles of Florida State, 23-16, in the Fiesta Bowl to claim the national title.

The BCS Series consists of the Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Orange Bowl and Fiesta Bowl. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and the Southeastern conferences.

The Bowl Championship Series differs from the original Bowl Alliance in that guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true nation championship game on a yearly basis.

ABC-TV has the broadcast rights to each of the four bowl games during th four-year contract.

THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 47th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 75 national championships, including 38 in men's competition and 37 in women's. In addition, 115 men and 26 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

The University of Maryland and the ACC had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the Terps captured the first of what would eventually be four national football titles for the conference.

The ACC is one of only two conferences to capture three or more national football titles since 1980. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981, Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990, while Florida State pocketed national title No. 4 in 1994.

The nine schools that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 346 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 50 first team Academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,418 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 101 first round selections. A year ago, 154 players from the nine current ACC schools played in the NFL during the regular season or playoffs.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division 1-A football. The ACC is the nation's winningest bowl conference as the nine current league teams are a combined 81-70-5 (.535) in postseason play, including a 24-19-1 mark since 1987. Over the past nine years, the ACC is the only conference in the country to have each of its schools play in a bowl game.

In the decade of the 1990s, ACC teams have posted the nation's second best non-conference record. Including both postseason and regular season games, the ACC is 197-104-4 (.652) vs. non-league foes since 1990.

Over the past three years, the ACC has had 19 first round picks in the annual NFL draft. In 1998, the ACC had 14 players earn first, second or third team All-America honors. The league tied with the Big 12 for the most consensus All-Americans with five each. Over the past three years, the ACC has produced 15 consensus All-Americans from four different schools.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 1999-2000 academic year — 12 for men and 13 for women.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977. Conference championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953 at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members — Maryland, Clemson, Duke, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest — drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On Dec. 4, 1953, conference officials again met at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The conference operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

1998-99 Season Review

The 1998-99 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 32 national team titles the last nine years. This past year, the ACC was the only Division 1-A conference to have a team play in the national championship game in men's and women's basketball and football. The ACC's 1998-99 national champions were Maryland in women's lacrosse, Virginia in men's lacrosse, and Duke in women's golf.

In addition, the ACC had six other teams participate in national title games -- Florida State in football and baseball, Virginia in women's lacrosse, Duke in men's and women's basketball, and North Carolina in women's soccer

1998 SEASON IN REVIEW

Among the NCAA's Most Improved

Maryland was among the nation's most improved teams in rushing offense, passing defense, total defense and scoring defense, according to final 1998 NCAA statistical rankings. Maryland was the sixth most-improved team in the country in rushing offense, 12th most-improved in total defense, 13th most-improved in scoring defense, and 14th most-improved in passing defense. Here's a look at how the Terps' improvement stacked up in those respective categories:

Forward Progress

The Terps not only showed forward progress in the win-loss column in head coach Ron Vanderlinden's second year, they also made significant strides in seven of the eight major NCAA offensive and defensive statistical categories in 1998. In fact, compared to the 1997 final rankings, the Terps moved up at least 34 spots in four categories: rushing offense (+56), passing defense (+42), total defense (+34) and scoring defense (+34).

NCAA Statistics	1997	1998	Diff.
Rushing Offense	106 (88.5)	50 (161.2)	+56
Passing Defense	102 (147.9)	60 (121.9)	+42
Total Defense	87 (401.8)	53 (361.0)	+34
Scoring Defense	92 (32.3)	58 (26.4)	+34
Rushing Defense	73 (174.6)	60 (159.0)	+13
Scoring Offense	108 (14.6)	85 (18.4)	+13
Total Offense	111 (267.7)	105 (278.3)	+6
Passing Offense	79 (174.3)	103 (117.1)	-24

Ron Vanderlinden saw a major improvement by the Terps throughout the 1998 season.

Terps' ACC Improvement

The Terps made positive strides in five of the eig major ACC team statistical categories in 1998 compar to their final 1997 rankings. A look:

ACC Category	'97	'98	Di
Rushing Offense	9th	3rd	+
Scoring Defense	9th	6th	+
Rushing Defense	8th	6th	+
Total Defense	7th	6th	+
Pass Eff. Defense	9th	8th	+

For Comparison's Sake

Here is a look at Terp accomplishments compared to 199

- In 1997, six of 11 opponents totaled at least 400 yar of offense against the Terps. This past season, that to was reached by only West Virginia, North Carolina a North Carolina State. High-powered offenses from Geo gia Tech, Florida State and Virginia all were held und 400 yards of total offense.
- Maryland's average scoring differential in 1998 w 8.0 ppg, a significant improvement over the 1997 d ferential of 17.7 ppg.
- In ACC games only, Maryland's scoring differential 1998 was a minus 10.5 points per game compared minus 23.7 points per game in 1997.
- Against Fiesta Bowl-bound Florida State in 1998, Ma land kept the Seminoles out of the end zone for 57 mi utes after surrendering a TD on their opening drive. safety and two late field goals preserved a 24-10 win f Florida State. In 1997, Maryland lost 50-7 to Florida Sta
- Against Virginia in 1997, Maryland lost 45-0. In 199 Virginia scored 10 points off costly turnovers and add a late touchdown for a 31-19 win.
- Maryland lost 40-14 to North Carolina in 1997, but f by a 24-13 count in 1998.

Tough Schedule

Of Maryland's 11 opponents in 1998, six advanced bowl games: Florida State (Fiesta), Georgia Tech (Gato Virginia (Peach), North Carolina (Las Vegas), West V ginia (insight.com) and NC State (Micron PC). In games as head coach at Maryland, Ron Vanderlinden h faced 11 teams that have gone on to bowl games. Ma land was 0-4 against teams ranked in the top 25 at t time, but was 3-4 vs. unranked opponents.

Closing The Gap

In most cases last season, the Terps closed the gap losses to their ACC opponents. In 1997, the average sc ing differential was 17.5 points. Last year, the Terps slic that margin to just eight points.

A look at score differentials between 1997 and 19 ACC opponents:

Opponent	1998 Score	1997 Sco
Florida State	L, 24-10	L, 50
North Carolina	L, 24-13	L, 40-
Wake Forest	L, 20-10	L, 35

1998 SEASON IN REVIEW

Youngest In The Nation?

The Terps went through 1998 gridiron wars with perhaps the youngest I-A team in the country. Every week, coach Ron Vanderlinden employed at least 20 freshmen and sophomores on the two-deep.

Ten freshmen or sophomores started in four of five games to end the season: Clemson, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, North Carolina and NC State.
Seventy-six percent of Maryland's scoring in 1998 was provided by freshmen and sophomores.

First Team All-ACC
Eric Barton

Senior linebacker Eric Barton (Alexandria, Va.) led the Terps' list of honors candidates in 1998. Named to preseason All-America teams and numerous preseason All-ACC lists, Barton became the first Maryland player named first team All-ACC since wide receiver Jermaine Lewis in 1995. Barton was one of 68 linebackers nationally on the Butkus Award preliminary watch list, and finished the season as the league's top tackler.

He was named the Terps' most valuable player for 1998, and the Terrapins' most outstanding defensive player. Barton was invited to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Classic on Dec. 25, and the Senior Bowl on Jan. 23. Barton took over the ACC lead in tackles in week 10 of the regular season, following his 22-tackle effort at North Carolina. He recorded 14 stops at Duke, and ended the season with a career second-best 18 stops vs. NC State. Barton finished his senior campaign with 14.5 tackles per game.

ic Barton led the league in tackles and was named st team All-ACC.

- He was named the ACC's defensive lineman of the week for efforts against North Carolina and NC State.
- Barton recorded double-digit tackles in 15 of his last 17 games. He posted 19 double-digit efforts in his career, including the final 10 games of his senior season.
- Barton registered a career high at North Carolina, totaling 22 tackles with 13 solos.
- Barton averaged 15 tackles (105) in his last seven games.
- Prior to his 22 tackles at North Carolina, Barton matched his previous career-high with 17 tackles against Temple. He also had 17 in 1997 vs. North Carolina. He concluded his career with 18 in his collegiate finale against NC State.
- The 6-3, 229-pound senior eclipsed the 300-tackle mark against Temple and spent much of the season closing in on Maryland's all-time leaders. Including six games as a true freshman and 33 consecutive starts since his sophomore campaign, Barton averaged 10.7 tackles (417) in 39 games. He ended his career ranked fourth on Maryland's all-time tackles chart.

All-ACC Honorable Mention
Kendall Ogle

Senior linebacker Kendall Ogle (Hillside, N.J.) joined Eric Barton among end-of-season ACC honorees. Ogle teamed with Barton in 1997 to finish 2-3 in the ACC in tackles. Last year, the twosome finished 1-2 with Barton leading the way. In 1997, Ogle topped the Terps' tackling charts with 138 overall, and was second only to Clemson's Anthony Simmons.

- Ogle was named one of two Maryland team captains at the team's postseason awards banquet. He also was tabbed the recipient of the Terrapin Club Award which honors the player making the greatest contributions to the program.
- Ogle was invited to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Classic on Dec. 25, and the Hula Bowl on Jan. 24.
- Kendall Ogle finished second in the ACC in tackles, ending his senior campaign with 17 stops at Duke and 15 vs. NC State. His 13 solos against the Blue Devils were a career high.
- Ogle joined Barton in recording a career high in tackles at North Carolina. Ogle made 18 stops, 11 solo, against the Tar Heels to eclipse his previous best of 17 last year against Clemson.
- Ogle was one of Maryland's players of the game against Florida State, making a then season-high 16 tackles including eight solos. He had a sack and another tackle for loss while playing every defensive snap in the game.
- He recorded 10 or more tackles in 16 of 19 and 18 of his last 22 outings, including nine during his senior season.

Under 400

Except for the West Virginia, North Carolina and NC State games, Maryland held its opponent under 400 yards total offense in every game in 1998. In 1997, six of 11 opponents totaled 400 yards or more vs. Maryland.

LaMont Jordan had the Terps' ninth-best rushing yardage season in 1998.

Jordan-Esque

The ACC rookie-of-the-year runner-up in 1997, Maryland's LaMont Jordan finished second in the ACC in rushing. He was 94 yards sby of becoming just the fourth player in Maryland history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, and the first since 1982.

Single Season Rushing Leaders	Yards
1. Charlie Wysocki (Jr.), 1980	1,359
2. Steve Atkins (Sr.), 1978	1,261
3. Charlie Wysocki (So.), 1979	1,140

8. Willie Joyner (Sr.), 1983	908
9. LaMont Jordan (So.), 1998	906
10. Lu Gambino (Sr.), 1947	904

- Jordan narrowly missed the 1,000-yard barrier despite playing just 10 games, missing much of the second half and totaling just one net yard at West Virginia, and playing the first half at Duke with a cast on his right hand.
- Jordan's 109 yards on 20 carries in the season finale vs. NC State marked his fifth 100-yard game in 1998, and the seventh in his two-year career.
- After fracturing his right thumb in practice prior to the Duke game in week 10, he rushed for 68 yards against the Blue Devils including a second half 46-yard TD jaunt. Jordan wore a protective cast on his right hand during the first half, but asked to have it removed at halftime.
- Jordan blistered Duke and North Carolina defenses with long runs of 46, 49 and 50 yards — all for touchdowns — in back-to-back weeks. He added a 39-yard run that fell just short of a touchdown in the season finale against NC State.

1998 SEASON IN REVIEW

Terp Rushing Progress

Not only did the Terps include a heralded tailback in their running game, a quick-hitting power game emerged with sophomore fullback Matt Kalapinski, along with a running threat from freshman quarterback Randall Jones. Kalapinski averaged 4.9 yards per carry and was ranked as high as sixth among ACC rushing leaders last season.

- Of 112 NCAA Division I teams in the country, Maryland jumped from a rank of 106th last season to 50th in '98, an increase of 56 positions. The Terps improved nearly 80 yards per game and became one of the nation's most improved running teams.
- Kalapinski's 53-yard jaunt at Virginia was then the Terps' longest run from scrimmage this season.
- Jones' 75-yard touchdown streak at Duke was Maryland's longest run from scrimmage since 1982. His 40-yard TD burst vs. Georgia Tech was, at the time, Maryland's longest rushing touchdown of the season.

Mastrole And Jones

Freshman quarterback Randall Jones played in 10 of 11 games last season and alternated with opening-game starter Ken Mastrole. Jones started the Clemson game to become the first true freshman starting quarterback in Maryland history. Jones started each game since, until Mastrole took the opening series vs. Duke and NC State.

- In each of the final two games, Mastrole threw an interception on his first pass attempt before giving way to Jones. At Duke, Jones came on to complete perhaps the most productive day by a Maryland quarterback in 1998. He finished with 115 yards rushing and was 6 of 13 passing while guiding the Terps to 358 yards total offense.
- Since the Florida State game, Jones took the lion's share of snaps, directing 339 plays compared to 152 by Mastrole. Mastrole, however, took 42 snaps compared to Jones' 18 at North Carolina to mark Mastrole's most significant action since 42 snaps vs. Temple.
- Against FSU, Jones engineered both Maryland scoring drives.
- Mastrole and Jones shared three different series against Temple, resulting in two TDs and one of three Brian Kopka field goals.
- Among the oddities vs. Temple was a third-down, 15-yard pass reception by Jones from LaMont Jordan. Jones was shaken up on the play, Mastrole returned mid-drive and two plays later, Jordan scored on a 27-yard run.
- On the very next possession with Maryland leading 23-14 in the fourth quarter, Mastrole spelled Jones on a 3rd-and-8 play from the Temple 39 and completed his first touchdown pass since 1996.

Kopka Kicks • Groza Semifinalist

Sophomore placekicker Brian Kopka booted 12 field goals in nine games to rank among national leaders. The UNC and Duke games were his only games last season without a field goal attempt.

- He fell short on three of his last five attempts, each which came from 45 yards or longer (50 at Clemson, 56 vs. Wake Forest, 45 vs. Georgia Tech). A 57-yarder was blocked vs. NC State.
- Kopka moved his name into consideration for All-America honors on and off the field of play. By connecting on 12 of 18 field goal attempts and ranking 43rd nationally in field goals per game, Kopka was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, given annually to the nation's top placekicker.
- He ranked as high as first in the country, and was among the top six all season, until missing his only attempt vs. Georgia Tech.

Interception Marks

Maryland's seven interceptions at Duke not only tie an ACC record, but tied Maryland's existing mark of seve in a game, set against Georgia in 1951. The seven pick were the most by an ACC team since Wake Forest recorde seven thefts against Georgia Tech in 1987. NC State is th only other ACC team ever to intercept as many in a gam stealing seven passes vs. Iowa in 1965.

Crosby Interceptions

Within the Terps' last four games alone, Cliff Crosb intercepted five passes and finished in a tie for 13th na tionally. He averaged 0.45 picks per game. His big gam included three thefts at Duke, including one for a 52 yard touchdown that iced the game.

- Crosby's five interceptions rank him 13th among Mary land all-time leaders. The last time a Terp recorded a many was in 1995 when Andreal Johnson had six Crosby became just the third Terrapin since 1983 t record at least five in a season.
- His 133 yards in interception returns were the mos by a Maryland player since Wally Stalnaker set the Ter rapin record of 167 in 1967.

In The Red Zone

The Terps scored on 18 of 19 occasions that the reached inside the opponents' 20-yard line. Marylan scored nine touchdowns and nine field goals for 94.7% effectiveness.

Terps And The NFL

Linebackers Eric Barton (fifth round, Raiders) an Kendall Ogle (sixth round, Browns) were selected i the 1999 NFL Draft. In addition, defensive tackle Rashee Simmons (Giants), defensive back Cliff Crosby (Rams and offensive tackle John Feugill (Cardinals) signed fre agent contracts.

GAME 1

MARYLAND 23
JAMES MADISON 15

BYRD STADIUM
SEPT. 5, 1998

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Lynde Washington returned an interception 32 yards for a touchdown and Maryland scored 13 points off James Madison mistakes in a 23-15 victory. Held to three field goals in the first half, Maryland (1-0) scored twice in the opening seven minutes of the third quarter to go up 23-0 against the Division I-AA Dukes (0-1).

Four plays after Matt Kalapinski scored the Terrapins' first touchdown on a 1-yard run, Washington picked off a Greg Maddox pass and ran down the left sideline untouched. It was his second interception of the game and the second of the junior cornerback's career. The last Terrapin to score on an interception return was Mike Thomas, in October 1989.

Brian Kopka kicked three field goals and junior Ken Mastrole, making his fourth career start and first since 1996, was 15-for-24 for 181 yards.

The Terrapins played without their leading rusher of a year ago, LaMont Jordan, who had an injured ankle. Harold Westley started at tailback and gained 68 yards on 20 carries.

The Dukes scored twice in the fourth quarter. Maddox threw a 15-yard pass to Lindsay Fleshman, who got behind Washington on a fourth-down play, and Curtis Keaton scored from the 3 with 1:24 left. Maryland recovered the onside kick.

Maddox finished 14-for-24 for 131 yards and Keaton ran for 109 yards, 66 on one fourth-quarter carry.

Three straight JMU turnovers helped the Terrapins take a 9-0 halftime lead. Kopka kicked a 21-yard field goal after Madison punter Chris Wright fumbled a snap deep in his own territory. Five plays later, Maddox fumbled when hit by Aaron Thompson and Maryland's Eric Barton took the ball 16 yards to the 21, setting up a 27-yard field goal. The Terrapins moved 43 yards in nine plays before Kopka kicked a 26-yarder 14 seconds before halftime.

BRIAN KOPKA KICKED THREE FIELD GOALS VS. JAMES MADISON.

VIRGINIA 31
MARYLAND 19

SCOTT STADIUM
SEPT. 12, 1998

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Three Maryland running backs combined for 230 rusbing yards, but it wasn't enough to offset a pair of costly turnovers as the Terrapins' upset bid fell short against No. 12-ranked Virginia. Aaron Brooks passed for 225 yards and two touchdowns and Thomas Jones scored a late 21-yard touchdown run to help the Cavaliers withstand the Terps and come away with a difficult 31-19 victory over Maryland.

Virginia (2-0, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) opened with a shutout at Auburn, earned its highest ranking ever going into the second game, and was supposed to stroll to its seventh straight victory over Maryland.

Maryland (1-1, 0-1) scored first and stayed close despite setting up a Virginia touchdown and field goal with fumbles and an interception near the Virginia goal line.

After the Terrapins opened the scoring with a 46-yard field goal by Brian Kopka, Brooks directed a 73-yard touchdown drive with 12:07 left in the second quarter. After Maryland fumbled away the kickoff return, Brooks hit Coffey for a 29-yard TD that quickly put Virginia ahead 14-3.

The Terrapins opened tbe second half with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by Harold Westley's 30-yard run up the middle. A few plays later, however, Brooks found fullback Tyree Foreman wide open for a 28-yard touchdown and Virginia was back ahead by two touchdowns.

But late in the third quarter, Matt Kalapinski burst through the Virginia defense for a 53-yard run, and Kenny Rogers plowed into the end zone from four yards. On Maryland's next possession, a 37-yard pass reception by Jermaine Arrington set up Brian Kopka's 25-yard field goal to get Maryland to 24-19. Westley and Kalapinski backed a strong effort by sophomore workhorse LaMont Jordan, whose 88 yards on 23 carries helped sustain several Terrapin drives.

THREE TERP BACKS COMBINED FOR 230 RUSHING YARDS.

WEST VIRGINIA 42

MOUNTAINEER FIELD
SEPT. 19, 1998

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. — The whiskey bottle and golf balls were the least of Maryland's worries as Marc Bulger passed for 293 yards and three touchdowns and Amos Zereoue rushed for 135 yards and two scores to lead No. 19 West Virginia to a 42-20 win.

Zereoue had 91 yards by halftime against Maryland (1-2) and went over 100 on his first carry of the third quarter. As good as Zereoue was, it was Bulger who guided the Mountaineers to their first three touchdowns as he completed 18 of 21 passes for 274 yards in the first half.

West Virginia (1-1) took a 7-0 lead as time expired in the first quarter when Bulger found Khori Ivy with a 9-yard scoring pass. Maryland failed to capitalize on two West Virginia turnovers in the first quarter — fumbles by Bulger at the Maryland 28 and Zereoue at midfield.

After Maryland pulled within 7-3 on the first of two 43-yard field goals by Brian Kopka, West Virginia went up 28-3 at halftime by scoring on three straight possessions and falling on a blocked punt in the end zone. West Virginia scored on its first possession of the second half and recovered a fumble to set up Zereoue's second TD for a 42-3 lead.

Freshman quarterback Randall Jones fumbled away a pitch on his second play from scrimmage to set up WVU's final score, but commanded the Terrapins on two fourth-quarter scoring drives and 192 yards in total offense.

Sophomore fullback Matt Kalapinski scored fourth-quarter touchdowns for Maryland on runs of 15 and 2 yards. He tallied 80 yards on 11 carries.

As for the whiskey bottle and golf balls, West Virginia withstood 14 penalties for 141 yards including three unsportsmanlike penalties for objects thrown onto the field.

GAME 4

MARYLAND 30
TEMPLE 20

BYRD STADIUM
SEPT. 26, 1998

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — LaMont Jordan ran for a career-high 138 yards and two touchdowns, and Maryland scored twice in a three-minute span of the fourth quarter to pull away to a 30-20 victory over Temple.

Maryland (2-2) led 16-14 before Jordan scored on a 27-yard touchdown run with 13:44 left. After a Temple punt, Ken Mastrole threw a 39-yard TD pass to Bruce James for a 30-14 lead. The loss kept Temple coach Bobby Wallace winless in his first season with the Owls (0-4). Temple, which has yielded an average of 30 points per game, kept it close for three quarters before collapsing.

Jordan, who carried 22 times, eclipsed his previous high of 135 yards -- set last season in a win against Temple.

The Owls trailed 16-7 before Lamond Adams forced a fumble that Temple cornerback LeVar Talley took 10 yards for a touchdown with 3:21 left in the third quarter.

The Terrapins responded with an 85-yard drive for a 23-14 lead. Jordan ran five times for 48 yards and kept the drive alive with a 15-yard pass to quarterback Randall Jones on a third-down trick play.

Temple went three plays before punting, and Mastrole found James in the right side of the end zone with 10:49 remaining. It was the first touchdown pass since 1996 for Mastrole, who alternated with Jones at quarterback the entire game.

The Terrapins limited the Owls to four first downs and 104 yards in taking a 13-7 halftime lead. Maryland moved 65 yards in seven plays in its second possession to go up 7-0. Jordan accounted for 47 rushing yards on the drive, including a 26-yard sweep around right end for a touchdown. Jones replaced Mastrole at quarterback on the Terrapins' next possession and set up a 23-yard field goal by Brian Kopka for a 10-0 lead.

LAMONT JORDAN RUSHED FOR A CAREER-BEST 138 YARDS.

FLORIDA STATE 24 MARYLAND 10

BYRD STADIUM
OCT. 3, 1998

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — After Florida State took the opening kickoff and moved 9 yards in six plays for a 7-0 lead with ease, it appeared evident that a Seminoles' rout f Maryland was underway. But not this time. The opening score turned out to be the nly touchdown for the ninth-ranked Seminoles, who overcame a pair of turnovers and stiff Maryland defense to squeeze out a 24-10 victory.

Sebastian Janikowski kicked five field goals and Chris Weinke passed for 261 ards for FSU, but the game hardly reembled the previous six meetings beveen these teams that have been deided by an average of 39 points over e last six years.

The Seminoles (4-1, 2-1 ACC) cored on their first four possessions ut led only 16-10 at halftime. Buoyed y growing confidence, the Maryland efense held the Seminoles from scorng in six of their final eight possessions.

The Seminoles amassed 111 ards in penalties and Peter Warrick ost two fumbles on punt returns. laryland (2-3, 0-2) also denied FSU n 10 of 19 third-down situations. vere it not for Janikowski, whose five ield goals tied a school record, lorida State would have been in deep rouble. Janikowski connected from 7, 47, 48, 23 and 36 yards and issed from 47.

A 14-yard touchdown pass from Randall Jones to Moises Cruz put Maryand on the scoreboard and a 24-yard eld goal from Brian Kopka pulled the Terrapins within six. The Terrapins vere still within eight points late in the hird quarter despite a Jones fumble in e end zone for an FSU safety.

Florida State eventually wore own Maryland behind tailback Jeff haney, who gained 133 yards on 30 arries in his first college start. anikowski's fourth field goal staked he Seminoles to a 21-10 lead and his fth made it 24-10 with 11:01 left. laryland recovered Warrick's second umble with 7:12 remaining at the FSU 2, but could not score.

MARYLAND HELD THE 'NOLES TO JUST ONE TOUCHDOWN.

GAME 6

CLEMSON 23 MARYLAND 0

CLEMSON STADIUM
OCT. 10, 1998

CLEMSON, S.C. — Brandon Streeter, benched only a week earlier, returned to throw for 191 yards and two touchdowns as Clemson broke its worst losing streak in 23 years with a 23-0 victory over Maryland.

The low-scoring game was more than enough for the Tigers (2-4, 1-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), who were reeling after four consecutive losses and scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to put the game away.

The time looked right for the Terps (2-4, 0-3) to break through against Clemson. But the Maryland offense, directed by Randall Jones, the first true freshman QB starter in Terrapin history, managed just 172 total yards.

Streeter's 31-yard pass to Marcus Martin led to David Richardson's 42-yard field goal. Streeter set up Clemson's touchdown with a 17-yard throw to Brian Wofford, then found Martin on a square-out to the right side. Martin wriggled away from a defender and dived into the end zone.

Streeter added a 28-yard scoring pass to Wofford and Travis Zachery had a 26-yard scoring run, both with under four minutes to play.

Clemson's defense, third overall in the ACC, made sure the lead held up with its fourth shutout of Maryland since 1993.

Jones, given the job after keeping the Terps close in a 24-10 loss to Florida State a week earlier, was 4-of-11 in the first half. Jones was lifted after three second-half series and finished 7-of-18 with 69 yards.

Maryland was led offensively by running back LaMont Jordan, who carried 14 times for 83 yards, and receiver Jermaine Arrington, who finished with a team-high three receptions. On defense, four Terrapins reached double figures in total tackles: linebacker Kendall Ogle (13), defensive end Peter Timmins (12), linebacker Eric Barton (11) and nose tackle Delbert Cowsette (11).

JONES BECAME THE TERPS' FIRST TRUE FRESHMAN STARTER AT QB.

GAME 7

WAKE FOREST 20 MARYLAND 10

BYRD STADIUM
OCT. 17, 1998

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Desmond Clark caught two touchdown passes and became the leading receiver in Atlantic Coast Conference history as Wake Forest built a 17-point halftime lead and held on to beat Maryland, 20-10.

Brian Kuklick went 22-for-34 for 225 yards passing to lead Wake Forest. The Demon Deacons (3-3, 2-1 ACC) scored on three of their first four drives and outgained Maryland, 205-99, in the decisive first half.

The Terrapins (2-5, 0-4) closed to 17-10 late in the third quarter and turned the tables to outgain the Deacons 235-88 in the second half, but Wake Forest used an interception to set up the game-clinching field goal with 3:27 remaining.

LaMont Jordan ran for 132 yards and threw a 68-yard touchdown pass off the halfback option, but the Terrapins lost their third straight to go 0-4 in the ACC for the first time since 1992.

Clark had eight receptions for 112 yards. The 6-foot-3 senior has 200 catches in his career, seven more than Jermaine Lewis had with Maryland from 1992-1995. Thanks heavily to Kuklick and Clark, Wake Forest won a second straight over Maryland for the first time since 1968.

Wake Forest moved 47 yards in its opening drive before Matthew Burdick kicked a 46-yard field goal. The Demon Deacons made it 10-0 with a methodical 12-play drive that ended with a 26-yard pass to Clark on the third play of the second quarter. Clark and Kuklick again ended Wake Forest's next drive, making it 17-0 with a 9-yard score on a third-down play.

Maryland snapped a scoring drought of 92 minutes midway through the third quarter. Jordan took a pitchout, rolled to his right and lofted an end-over-end pass that Jermaine Arrington caught between two defenders before weaving his way to the end zone.

MARYLAND'S SECOND-HALF COMEBACK BID FELL SHORT.

GAME 8

GEORGIA TECH 3 MARYLAND 1

NFL STADIUM AT CAMDEN YAR
OCT. 31, 199

BALTIMORE — Dez White returned a kickoff 100 yards and Joe Burns' 44-ya touchdown run sparked a third-quarter surge that carried No. 23 Georgia Tech p Maryland, 31-14, in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

Georgia Tech (6-2, 5-1 ACC) managed only 95 yards, missed two field goal tri and didn't score on offense during a 14-14 first half. But the Yellow Jackets amass 149 yards in the third quarter and outscored Maryland, 17-0, to pull away.

Burns, a freshman, finished with 179 yards on 20 carries. Quarterback Joe Hamilton, who suffered a hip pointer injury in the Florida State game a week earlier, finished 11-for-26 for 118 yards after going 6-for-16 for 58 yards before halftime.

Maryland (2-6, 0-5) lost its fourth straight. The Terrapins led 14-7 after the first quarter, but never scored again. Freshman quarterback Randall Jones scored on a 40-yard run but was 4-for-15 for 27 yards.

"Our biggest nemesis is getting things going with our passing game," Maryland coach Ron Vanderlinden said. "We run the ball well enough to win, but we have to find a passing attack."

Georgia Tech wasted little time taking control in the pivotal third quarter. After Maryland missed a field goal, the Yellow Jackets covered 71 yards in five plays in a drive capped by Burns' touchdown run off an option pitch.

A Maryland fumble was quickly converted into a 39-yard field goal by Brad Chambers, and Georgia Tech made it 31-14 when Hamilton capped a 65-yard drive with a 12-yard touchdown pass to Ed Wilder.

Maryland running back LaMont Jordan eclipsed the 100-yard rushing plateau by totaling 102 yards on 19 carries.

The game was played at Baltimore's new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards, the first Division I game to be played at the venue.

A PIVOTAL THIRD QUARTER LIFTED THE NO. 23 JACKETS.

GAME 10

Maryland 42
Duke 25

Wallace Wade Stadium
Nov. 14, 1998

DURHAM, N.C. — Randall Jones threw for two touchdowns and ran for one as Maryland beat Duke 42-25. Maryland recorded an Atlantic Coast Conference-record seven interceptions and the Terps (3-7, 1-6 ACC) scored 28 points off Blue Devils turnovers.

The loss guaranteed Duke (4-6, 2-5) a fourth consecutive losing season and dashed long-shot hopes of qualifying for a bowl.

Jones was just 6-of-13 for 98 yards with one interception, but he made touchdown throws of 28 yards to Moises Cruz and 3 yards to Matt Kalapinski. Jones also rushed 11 times for 115 yards, most coming on a 75-yard touchdown, the longest run by a Maryland player since Willie Joyner's 84-yard run vs. North Carolina in 1982.

Duke quarterback Bobby Campbell accounted for three TDs but the Blue Devils could not overcome their mistakes.

Maryland tied the game 14-14 in the first quarter on a 50-yard reverse by Jermaine Arrington and a 28-yard touchdown pass from Jones to Cruz. Jones gave Maryland a 21-17 lead, its first, with 11:57 remaining in the half on his 75-yard sprint through the right side.

LaMont Jordan pushed Maryland's lead to 35-17 on a 46-yard romp around left end with 10:59 left in the game. Jordan ended up with 68 yards on 15 carries.

Duke cut Maryland's lead to 35-25 with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Campbell to Richmond Flowers and a 2-point conversion throw to Terrence Dupree.

Maryland's Cliff Croshy iced it with a 52-yard TD return of his third interception of the game. Renard Cox got the seventh interception off Campbell with 26 seconds to play.

GAME 11

NC STATE 35 MARYLAND 21

BYRD STADIUM
NOV. 21, 1998

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Jamie Barnette threw for 241 yards and capped a pivotal 20-play drive with a touchdown pass as North Carolina State clinched a bowl bid by beating Maryland 35-21.

NC State (7-3, 5-2) fought back from a 7-6 halftime deficit with two diverse third-quarter touchdowns. Maryland (3-8, 1-7) twice got within seven points, but never threatened to get even.

The Wolfpack took the lead for good with a 20-play, 80-yard drive that lasted nearly 10 minutes and ended with a 9-yard TD pass to Chris Coleman. Five plays later, Lloyd Harrison returned a blocked field goal for a 57-yard score.

Barnette completed 22 of 39 passes and NC State's Torry Holt had eight catches, giving him an ACC-record 79 receptions in a season.

Ray Robinson enhanced the ACC's top-ranked offense by rushing for 111 yards and Coleman had seven catches for 71 yards. LaMont Jordan ran for 109 yards and a touchdown for the Terrapins to finish the year with 906 yards rushing, the ninth-best single-season total in school history.

Barnette was 4-for-4 on the Wolfpack's lengthy drive at the outset of the second half. Maryland then moved into NC State territory, but Harrison scored after Bobbie Cotten blocked a 57-yard field goal try. Maryland closed to 21-14 on a touchdown run by Jordan before the Wolfpack countered with an 8-yard TD run by Harold Jackson.

Randall Jones threw a 56-yard pass to Matt Kalapinski and then scored on a short run for Maryland, but the Wolfpack iced the victory with their fourth second-half touchdown with 3:25 remaining.

Neither offense could put together a decent scoring drive in the first half until Maryland moved 67 yards in the second quarter following an interception by Eric Barton. Jason Hatala gave the Terrapins a 7-3 lead with a 21-yard reverse.

JORDAN CHALKED UP HIS FIFTH 100-YARD RUSHING GAME.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland football season since 1892. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College from 1892-1915 and Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953; Southern Conference from 1921-51 (SC standings not available from 1921-32) and South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1920.

Home games were played at Byrd Field or "Old" Byrd Stadium, across the street from the campus on Baltimore Ave., from 1923-1917 and again in 1919. Some games in 1948 were played at Griffith Stadium in Washington, D.C. Home games since 1950 have been played at Byrd Stadium on campus.

Home, road and neutral records are in parentheses (H, A, N). Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls begin in 1936. From 1961-1967, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

ACC Co-CHAMPS

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

College Park is home to the nation's No. 1 football team. Never before in the history of the school had such acclaim been bestowed upon this campus. The Maryland grid team swept past its 10 regular season opponents with a perfect record and, in so doing, scored a total of 298 points while limiting its opposition to a record 31. Coach Jim Tatum was named the national coach of the year and many Old Line players were selected to various all-star teams. Operating out of the split T, Maryland ranked sixth in the nation in total offense with a 359.5-yard average. On defense, the team yielded only 193.2 yards per game and led the country in rushing (83.9) and scoring defense (3.1). During the '53 campaign, the Terps made up for two defeats handed them in 1952 by decisively beating Mississippi and Alabama. After the Terps downed Miami 30-0, Hurricane coach Andy Gustafson summed up the nation's top team by saying, "Maryland has one of the greatest teams I've ever seen." Maryland began the season with a No. 9 preseason ranking by the Associated Press and took over the top spot in the polls on the final week of the regular season after the No. 2 Terps waxed the No. 11 Crimson Tide, 21-0. The top-ranked and undefeated Terps tied No. 18 Duke for the inaugural ACC title, but fell to 10-1 after losing the Orange Bowl to Oklahoma, 7-0.

The Terps carried coach Jim Tatum off the field at UNC after a 26-0 shutout of the Tar Heels.

RANKED #14

The Tatum system was clicking by the third season under the new coach. Maryland scored more points than in any previous season in its history – 266 to its opponents' 81. Jim Tatum and a collection of new players lifted Maryland to its first ranking in the AP poll. Newcomers such as Ed Modzelewski, Bob Ward, Bob Shemonski and junior All-America tackle Ray Krouse were instrumental in leading the Terrapins to eight decisive regular season victories, losing only to No. 13 Michigan State, 14-7. The Terps plowed through the opposition, and after beating No. 15 Boston U. by a 14-13 count, earned the No. 15 poll position themselves. Maryland ended the regular season with a 13-0 shutout at Miami. The Terps earned their first bowl victory with a 20-7 rout of Missouri in the Gator Bowl.

RANKED #3

Maryland completed its only undefeated season in history and clobbered top-ranked and heavily favored Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl to lay its own claim to a national crown. Led by All-American tackles Bob Ward and Ray Krouse, brothers Ed and Dick Modzelewski, and quarterback Jack Scarbath, Maryland accepted a Sugar Bowl invitation against the recommendation of Southern Conference presidents who sought for all league institutions to boycott the bowls. The Terps were decided underdogs against No. 1 Tennessee, but Ed "Mighty Mo" Modzelewski's 155 rushing yards and a 28-13 victory prompted Tennessee coach Bob Neyland to state, "We were soundly beaten by a superior team."

RANKED #13

The amazing win streak continued in 1952, but it ended abruptly and Maryland was kept out of a bowl game despite its No. 13 final ranking. The Terps had amassed 19 straight wins and 22 straight games without a defeat before falling 21-14 at Mississippi on Nov. 15. The end came in the eighth game of a schedule that was revised heavily after Southern Conference teams refused to play Maryland because the Terps had chosen to play in the previous season's Sugar Bowl. Ole Miss scored a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns to upend the Terps, and Maryland fell 27-7 to Alabama the following week to quell any hopes of a bowl bid. Bernie Faloney and Jack Scarbath both were All-Americans and Scarbath, a preseason favorite to win the Heisman Trophy, finished second in the balloting.

Chet Hanulak raced past the Boston U. defenders for a 15-yard TD on Nov. 1.

Entering the season ranked No. 3 in the nation, the Terps began the 1954 campaign in convincing style, shutting out Kentucky 24-0 in their season opener. But the Terps stumbled in their next game, losing a close 12-7 decision to fourth-ranked UCLA. That dropped Maryland to No. 13 in the polls heading into their ACC matchup vs. Wake Forest. A 13-13 tie with the Demon Deacons sent the Terps tumbling out of the national rankings for the first time since 1950. Maryland rebounded to shut out North Carolina 33-0 before dropping a 9-7 road decision to Miami. The Terps went on to win their final five games by a combined score of 200-33, including a 74-13 Thanksgiving Day shellacking of Missouri. Maryland finished the season with a No. 8 national ranking.

The Terps were 5-3 after a 42-22 loss to No. 6 Penn ate, but three decisive wins over Virginia, Clemson and Tulane urned Maryland a bid to its first bowl game since the 1956 Orge Bowl. Maryland dominated Georgia in the Peach Bowl, ntgaining the Bulldogs 461 to 284 on offense and driving inside e Georgia 20-yard line seven times. Four turnovers proved costly, owever, and after a 10-10 tie at intermission, all Maryland could uster was a pair of fourth quarter field goals by Steve Mikeayer. Defensive tackle Randy White earned the first of his two l-America awards.

ACC CHAMPS

Maryland won its first conference championship in 18 years, sweeping past all six of its league opponents. It marked the 10th time in conference history that a team had gone unbeaten in league play. The Terps extended their win streak against ACC foes to 10. Maryland took a top-10 ranking into the Liberty Bowl before falling to Tennessee, 7-3, and ending the season 13th in the final AP poll. Maryland's Randy White was a consensus All-American and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies.

ACC CHAMPS

Maryland captured its second consecutive ACC gridiron title by posting a perfect 5-0 league mark and extending its win streak over conference opponents to 15, tying a league record. For the third straight year, the Terps took part in postseason competition, defeating Florida, 13-0, in the Gator Bowl. Maryland, which led the league in total offense with 375.2 yards per game, set an ACC single-game total offense mark with 802 yards in a 62-24 victory over Virginia, Nov. 22. Maryland's John Schultz was the nation's top kickoff returner with a 31.0 average.

ACC CHAMPS

The powerful Terrapins swept through the regular season undefeated and became only the second team in ACC history to win three consecutive league titles outright. Coach Jerry Claiborne's club ran its conference victory string to a record 20 straight. The Terps appeared in a bowl for the fourth straight year, losing to Southwest Conference champion Houston, 30-21, in the Cotton Bowl. Maryland tackle Joe Campbell was a consensus All-American. Maryland's No. 8 ranking in the final AP poll was the first Top 10 finish by an ACC team since 1960.

The Terps fired out of the gates 8-0 including a 31-7 homecoming win over No. 20 NC State. Maryland steadily rose in the polls, and after a 27-0 shutout of Duke, was No. 5 heading into a showdown at No. 2 Penn State. The Nittany Lions won a 27-3 decision in front of 78,019 which dropped Maryland to No. 13 in the polls. But after a 17-7 win at Virginia the Terps were paired with Clemson for an ACC first-place showdown. No. 11 Maryland and No. 12 Clemson entered the regular season finale both tied at 5-0. Clemson emerged from the Byrd Stadium shootout a 28-24 victor. The loss sent Maryland into a disappointing Sun Bowl matchup with Texas where it suffered its worst bowl loss ever, 42-0.

ALL-TIME POSTSEASON

RANKED #20

Junior quarterback Boomer Esiason led the Terrapins and first-year head coach Bobby Ross to a seven-game midseason win streak which earned Maryland its first national ranking in two seasons. After early season losses at No. 7 Penn State and No. 17 West Virginia, Maryland scored points at will while rolling through its ACC schedule. The Terrapins' 31-point average was second only to its undefeated season of 1951, and Ross was named the national coach of the year by the Washington Touchdown Club. A 31-24 win at No. 10 North Carolina put Maryland back in the rankings, and another shootout with Clemson would determine the ACC champion. No. 16 Maryland was invited to the inaugural Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where it surrendered a last-second touchdown to No. 9 Washington, losing 21-20.

ACC CHAMPS

Maryland claimed its first Atlantic Coast Conference title since 1976, finishing undefeated in five league contests to outdistance runner-up North Carolina (4-2). Maryland opened the campaign by winning six of its first seven contests, including ACC matchups vs. Virginia, Wake Forest, Duke and North Carolina. The Terps were ranked seventh in the nation prior to suffering a 35-23 setback at the hands of No. 3-ranked Auburn on Nov. 5. Maryland closed the regular season and wrapped up the ACC crown by defeating North Carolina State on the road, 29-6.

In front of the first capacity crowd in Gator Bowl history, 16,666, Maryland's Lu Gambino was a one-man wrecking crew, rushing for 165 yards and scoring three touchdowns. Gambino's three scores propelled Maryland to a 20-7 lead, but Georgia reeled off 13 points in the fourth quarter to tie the game. The Bulldogs threatened to win the game in the closing seconds, but time ran out with Georgia on Maryland's four-yard line. Despite the tie, there was no question as to the game's most valuable player. Gambino won the Burkhalter Award, signifying the game's outstanding performer. Gambino was inducted into the Gator Bowl Hall of Fame in 1992.

Three times in the first half Missouri turned the ball over and all three times Maryland scored a touchdown as the Terrapins defeated the Tigers, 20-7, to earn their first-ever postseason victory. The Terrapin running attack, led by Bob Shemonski and Ed Modzelewski, amassed 266 rushing yards, the second-most by a Maryland bowl team. Maryland defensive back John Idzik set up Maryland's first score with a 26-yard interception return to the Tiger 11-yard line. Shemonski scored on a sweep on the next play for the go-ahead touchdown. Shemonski scored again on a six-yard run late in the second quarter to put the Terps up 20-0.

This was the first game of the contract that pitted the Big Eight Conference champion against the Atlantic Coast Conference champion. The Terrapins took an undefeated season and the nation's No. 1 ranking into the game against an Oklahoma squad that used a powerful running attack to grind out a second quarter touchdown to propel the Sooners to a 7-0 win. Twice the Terps had first down opportunities with the ball inside the 10-yard line and failed to come away with any points. Despite the narrow loss, the Terrapins claimed the 1953 national championship.

Maryland 17
Minnesota 7

After allowing an early Minnesota touchdown run, the Terps scored the next 17 points and shut out the Golden Gophers over the next three quarters to leave Birmingham with a 17-7 win. Offensively, the Terps looked to George Scott who rushed for 75 yards and two second-quarter touchdowns to put Maryland in the lead for good. The Maryland defense held the Gophers to only 69 yards of total offense in the second half.

The Maryland Terrapins, appearing in their sixth consecutive bowl and looking for their second straight bowl win, ran into a very determined Texas Longhorn team. The Longhorns' running game amassed 220 yards and five touchdowns, while the Texas defense held Maryland to 248 yards of total offense. It was the first time in 95 games the Terps had been held scoreless, ending the third-longest streak in the nation.

Maryland's Charlie Wysocki rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, but it was not enough to overcome the passing attack of the Gators' Wayne Peace, who threw for 271 yards and two touchdowns. Peace's favorite receiver, Cris Collinsworth, caught eight passes for 166 yards, including a 21-yard touchdown catch that led to Florida's 28-20 lead. Maryland's Dale Castro tied a Tangerine Bowl record and established a new Terrapin bowl record when he booted his fourth field goal in the third quarter.

Maryland and Washington made sure the fans who went to the inaugural Aloha Bowl got their money's worth. The Huskies' touchdown with :06 left secured Washington's come-from-behind, 21-20 victory. The Terps had a chance to go up by nine points with 3:39 left to play, but Jess Atkinson's 32-yard field goal attempt fell short. The Terps had fallen behind 14-6 in the first half and Boomer Esiason completed 10 passes for 120 yards and a touchdown in the third quarter, sparking Maryland to a 20-14 lead early in the fourth.

Tennessee scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to overcome a 20-16 deficit and defeat the Terps, 30-23, in the 1983 Citrus Bowl. Maryland took a four-point lead into the fourth quarter, thanks to outstanding play from reserve quarterback Frank Reich. Reich entered the game in the second quarter when starter Boomer Esiason suffered a shoulder injury. Reich's one mistake of the day, an interception early in the fourth quarter, set the Volunteers on Maryland's 14-yard line which led to a Tennessee touchdown run that was the difference in the game.

The Maryland Terrapins were truly the comeback team of 1984. Maryland trailed Tennessee 21-0 at halftime and erupted for a Terrapin bowl record 22 points in the third quarter. Frank Reich's third-quarter touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds put the Terps up 22-21, but the ensuing kickoff was returned for a touchdown by the Volunteers to give them a 27-22 lead. Then with 8:03 left to play, the Terps' offense pounded out a 5:05 drive that was capped by a one-yard scoring run by Rick Badanjek for the game-winning touchdown.

Quarterback Stan Gelbaugh completed 14 passes for 223 yards, threw two touchdowns and rushed for another as Maryland defeated Syracuse 35-18. The Terrapins, who trailed 3-0 early in the first quarter, took their first lead thanks to Gelbaugh's four-yard touchdown run. Trailing 10-6 in the second quarter, Gelbaugh hit tight end Chris Knight for a three-yard score to put the Terps in the lead for good. The touchdown pass also was the start of a 22-point second quarter that tied a Maryland bowl record for points scored in a quarter.

Tech's Chris Boniol hit a 29-yard field goal with no time remaining in the 1990 Independence Bowl, allowing the Bulldogs to escape Shreveport with a 34-34 tie. The Terrapins fell behind 31-20 early in the fourth quarter but rallied to take the lead when Scott Zolak threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Brad Johnson with :52 remaining. However, on the ensuing kickoff, Tech's Lorenzo Baker returned the kick 41 yards to start the Bulldog drive on the Maryland 39-yard line. Five plays and 28 yards later, Boniol kicked his second field goal of the game to even the score.

TERPS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Bob Ward

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1980)

Bob Ward weighed all of 165 pounds throughout his four-year playing career at Maryland and, even in the early 1950s, that was no size for a lineman. Especially a lineman who was a first-team All-America middle guard on defense as a junior in 1950 and a first-team offensive guard as a senior in 1951.

The forte of the Maryland teams of the early 1950s was consistency—a winning consistency. During Ward's four years, the team was a combined 32-7-1, winning two bowl games (1949 Gator over Missouri, 1951 Sugar over Tennessee to complete a perfect 10-0 season).

The awards and honors Ward earned as a Maryland player belie physical stature, but speak volumes about the man. He was the MVP of the 1949 Gator Bowl, Maryland's first bowl victory. He was the only player ever to earn All-America honors as both an offensive and defensive position player. He earned Southern Conference Player of the Year honors as a senior and was chosen Lineman of the Year by the Washington Touchdown Club and the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association in 1951.

Bob Ward was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1980.

Bob Ward

Jack Scarbath

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1983)

Jack Scarbath is an integral part of Maryland football history. In his first start, the All-America quarterback scored the first touchdown in the new Byrd Stadium, a 21-yard run in the first game of the 1950 season.

Scarbath was the quarterback for head coach Jim Tatum's new split T offense for three seasons (1950-52). Scarbath led the Terps to a 24-4-1 record, including a perfect 10-0 season and a 28-13 upset of national champion Tennessee in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. Scarbath called the signals during Maryland's 22-game unbeaten streak over the course of the 1950, '51 and '52 seasons.

During his stellar career, Scarbath rewrote the Terrapin record book, completing 125 of 260 passes for 2,287 yards, an average of 18.3 yards per completion. In 1951, AP and UP polls named him honorable mention All-American. In 1952, he was honored with first team All-America citations from AP, UP, International News Service, Colliers, and Look. He finished runner-up to Oklahoma's Billy Vessels in the 1952 Heisman Trophy balloting.

A first-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins, Scarbath went on to play with the Redskins and Pittsburgh Steelers.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1983.

Jim Tatum

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1984)

In a brief time as a college football head coach -- one season at North Carolina (1942, 5-2-2), one at Oklahoma (1946, 8-3, Gator Bowl victory over North Carolina State) and nine years at Maryland (1947-55, 73-15-4, 2-2-1 in bowl games -- Jim Tatum had become a coaching legend.

Tatum's Maryland teams from 1950-55 were 51-8-2, with a perfect 10-0 record and Sugar Bowl victory in 1951. The squad posted 10-0 regular season records in 1953 and 1955 before both teams were upset by Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. Tatum's 1953 team was declared national champion, and Tatum was named national Coach of the Year.

During his career at Maryland, Tatum led the Terps to 19 consecutive wins and an unbeaten streak of 22 games (21-0-1) during the 1950, '51 and '52 campaigns. In the 1952 Sugar Bowl, the Terrapins defeated top-ranked Tennessee 23-13.

Tatum left Maryland following the 1955 season to return to his alma mater, North Carolina, in 1956. He coached the Tar Heels for three more seasons.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1984.

Stan Jones

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1991)

Stan Jones was the starting right tackle on the Terp defense that allowed only 31 points during 10 regular season games in 1953. With Jones leading the way, Maryland recorded six shutouts and allowed only one team, Georgia, to score more than six points.

It all added up to a 10-0 regular season for the Terps, who captured the national championship despite an upset loss to Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

Jones earned consensus All-America honors in 1953 and was chosen "Outstanding College Lineman of 1953" by the College Football Coaching Board. A fifth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears, Jones went on to have a lengthy pro career. He spent a majority of his career with the Bears (1954-65) before finishing at Washington (1966).

"I was very prepared for the NFL when I left Maryland," Jones said.

"From my coaches who taught me football to my professors who taught me anatomy, physiology and weight training, I received a great education. I couldn't have picked a better place to go -- they picked me and there was not a better place to be."

Jones was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

TERPS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Dick Modzelewski

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1993)

Through three All-America years at Maryland and 14 All-Pro years in the National Football League, Dick Modzelewski was always "Little Mo." At 6-0, 235 pounds during his playing days at Maryland, he was one of the bigger collegiate linemen during the early 1950s. He was the second Mo at Maryland, following his older brother Ed, "Big Mo."

Dick Modzelewski played three years as defensive tackle for the Terps on the great teams which were 24-4-1. He became Maryland's first winner of a major national honor when he received the Outland Trophy as the nation's top lineman in 1952.

Through his career at Maryland, the Terps fashioned a 22-game unbeaten streak.

At the end of his senior season, Modzelewski was named to every All-America team and was awarded the Outland Trophy. He was a second-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins. He spent 14 seasons in the NFL, with the Redskins, the Pittsburgh Steelers, the New York Giants and Cleveland Browns. Modzelewski was an All-Pro and on NFL championship teams with both the Giants (1956) and the Browns (1964).

Dick Modzelewski was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1993.

Randy White

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1994)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1994)

Randy White changed the look of football's defensive lines. At Maryland, and later in an All-Pro National Football League career with the Dallas Cowboys, he was regarded as the quickest defensive lineman to play the game. He could be in an opponent's backfield before a quarterback could make a hand-off.

In 1974, Randy White cleaned up the college football awards plate. He was honored with the Outland and Lombardi trophies as the top collegiate lineman, was ACC Player of the Year, was an unanimous first-team All-America choice, named the Delaware (his home state) Athlete of the Year and named the Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association.

A first round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys, White was an All-Pro performer throughout his career and shared Super Bowl MVP honors with Dallas teammate Harvey Martin when the Cowboys defeated Denver in Super Bowl XII.

No one else will wear "94" at Maryland—Randy White's number has been retired.

He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

Bob Pellegrini

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1996)

Bob Pellegrini was recruited to Maryland as a quarterback, but made his name as one of college football's best linemen. In his first season, Pellegrini was a 6-2, 215-pound sophomore guard for the 1953 national champion Terrapins. He would play guard again in 1954 in an era when players went both ways, before being switched to center for his senior year to fill a Terrapin void.

As a senior, Pellegrini led Maryland to its second 10-0 regular season and ACC championship in three years as the Terps defeated defending national champion UCLA. He was selected ACC Player of the Year, named consensus All-America and pictured as Herman Hickman's cover boy for Lineman of the Year in 1955.

Pellegrini led the Terps to a 27-4-1 record over his career, with rankings in the Top 10 each season. He was the first pick in the National Football League draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. Pellegrini became one of the building blocks of an Eagle turnaround that took the team to the top of the football world. A losing team when he joined, the Eagles defeated Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers for the World Championship four years later with Bob Pellegrini at linebacker.

Bob Pellegrini was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in December 1996.

Jerry Claiborne

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1999)

Former Maryland football coach Jerry Claiborne was selected to join 12 legendary college football players and two other coaches among the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame.

Claiborne coached 28 seasons overall between stints at Virginia Tech (1961-70), Maryland (1972-81) and Kentucky (1982-89), and compiled a 179-122-8 record in the process. He is currently 28th on the all-time Division I-A coaching victories list.

At Maryland, Claiborne was named The Sporting News National Coach of the Year in 1974 after winning the Atlantic Coast Conference and finishing the season ranked No. 13 by the Associated Press. He was the District III Coach of the Year in 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In all, Claiborne was the coach of the year in three different conferences --- Southern (1963), ACC (1973, 75, 76) and Southeastern (1983) --- while leading his teams to 11 bowl games. Throughout his coaching career, he was a strong advocate of the right combination of academics and athletics. In his years as head coach, he had four players named Academic All-America and 87 players earn academic all-conference honors. On the field, he coached 13 All-Americans and 53 who earned all-conference status.

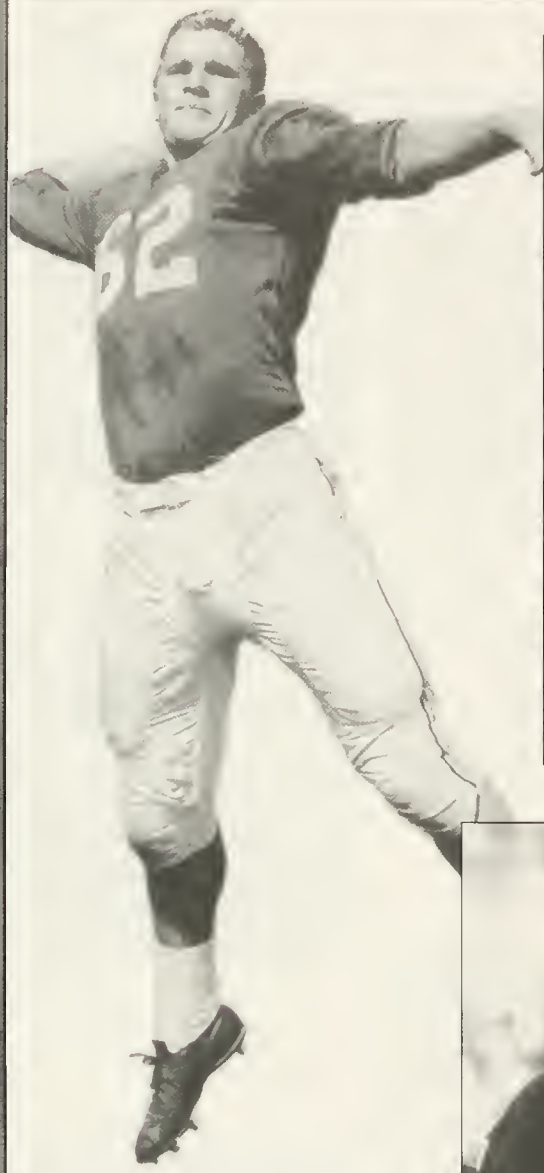
MARYLAND'S QUARTERBACK LEGACY



JACK SCARBATH

FRANK REICH

BOB AVELLINI

BOOMER ESIASON

Over the years Maryland has carved a well-earned reputation as Quarterback U, producing no less than 13 players who have gone on to play the position in the National Football League. Here's a brief look at some of the Terps' most celebrated signal-callers:

Jack Scarbath (1950-52) -- Maryland's split T quarterback was runner-up to Billy Vessels for the Heisman Trophy and was a unanimous All-America selection in 1952. Named Sport magazine's "Sportsman of the Year," Scarbath was a unanimous All-South selection and the Southern Conference Player of the Year. In three seasons, the Terps were 24-4-1 with Scarbath as QB, including 10-0 in 1951. He went on to become Maryland's second first-round draft pick, going to Washington in 1953.

Bob Avellini (1972-74) -- In his first start as a sophomore, he showed a glimpse of things to come, setting school marks for total offense (312 yards) and passing yards (314) while completing 21 of 31 passes in a game vs. Duke. He still ranks among the most accurate passers in school history, completing 58.6 percent of his passes for 3,222 yards. A sixth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears in 1975, he went on to have a 10-year NFL career.

Boomer Esiason (1981-83) -- He was a two-time All-American who set 17 school records and led the Terps to the ACC championship in 1983 and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl. Arguably the most prolific left-handed quarterback in NFL history, Esiason was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and spent 14 seasons in pro football. In 1988, he was named the league's MVP and led his Cincinnati Bengals to Super Bowl XXIII against the San Francisco 49ers. He retired in 1997 ranked in the top 10 all-time in passing yards, completions and attempts. He currently is a commentator on ABC Sports' Monday Night Football, and is actively involved in the fight against cystic fibrosis. He established the Boomer Esiason Foundation which has raised millions of dollars to battle the disease.

Frank Reich (1983-84) -- Best known for leading the Buffalo Bills back from a 32-point deficit in the 1992 NFL playoffs against Houston, he also commanded the greatest comeback in the college game as well. On Nov. 10, 1984, Reich replaced Stan Gelbaugh at halftime against No. 6 Miami (Fla.) down 31-0. Thirty minutes later, Maryland pulled off the miracle upset, 42-40, preserving its run for a second consecutive ACC title. He finished the season as one of the top-rated passers in the ountry. He was drafted in the third round of the 1985 raft by Buffalo and has appeared in four Super Bowls

Stan Gelbaugh (1984-85) -- He played behind oomer Esiason and Frank Reich before moving into the erps starting lineup in 1984 when Reich went down ith a shoulder injury. Gelbaugh stepped in to lead Maryand to four wins and a narrow one-point loss on the oad to Penn State. The following season, the anticipaon of Gelbaugh's return brought the Terps a preseason o. 1 ranking by Sport magazine. The Terps went on to in the ACC title and a Cherry Bowl championship in '85. e served a pair of NFL clubs, the Buffalo Bills and Setle Seahawks.

Neil O'Donnell (1987-89) -- A two-year starter for e Terps, he ended his career in the No. 2 spot on most ajor Maryland passing charts. Drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1990, he became the team's franchise player during his six seasons on the team, making a Pro Bowl appearance in only his second year and leading the Steelers to an appearance in Super Bowl XXX. O'Donnell continued his career with the New York Jets and Cincinnati Bengals.

Scott Zolak (1989-90) -- Despite starting just one season for the Terps, he finished his collegiate career among Terp leaders in passing yards (3,124) and completions (270). His 2,589 passing yards in 1990 ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history and helped earn him honorable mention All-America recognition from Football News. He was taken in the fourth round of the 1991 NFL draft by the New England Patriots.

Scott Milanovich (1993-95) -- He left campus as one of the most decorated Terrapin QB's ever. In fact, Milanovich still owns or shares 31 Maryland passing records, including career standards for passing yards (7,301), touchdowns (49) and completions (650). He was drafted in 1996 by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

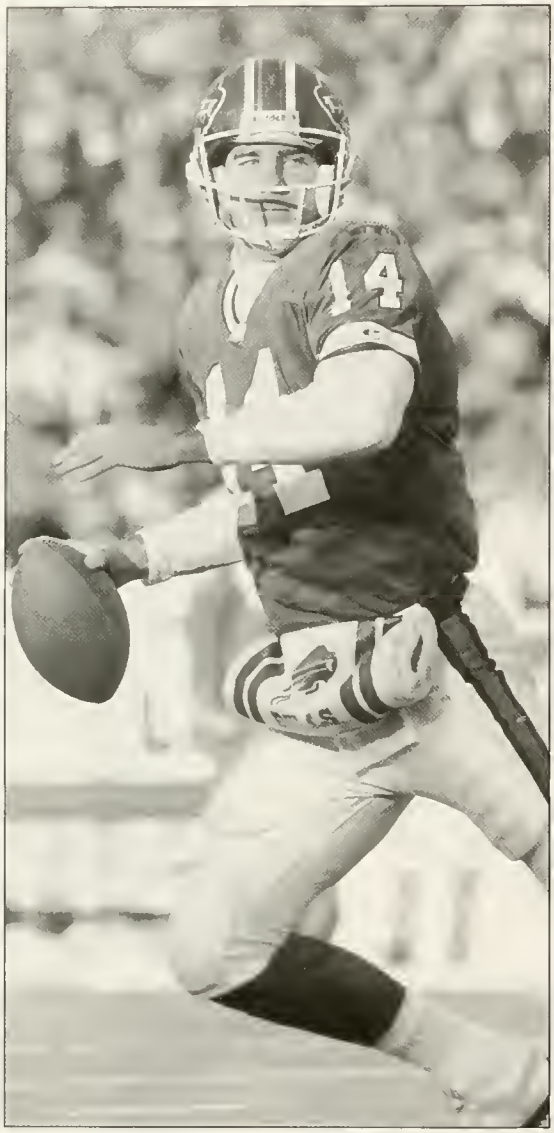
FRANK REICH: THE KING OF COMEBACKS



Reich led the Bills back from a 35-3 third-quarter deficit.

When it comes to engineering record-setting comeback victories, no one has done it better than Maryland's Frank Reich, who was at the controls for the greatest comebacks in NCAA and NFL history.

Reich's first encounter with greatness occurred as a senior in 1984, when he came off the bench to lead the Terps to what then ranked as the biggest comeback in NCAA history. Down 31-0 at halftime to the defending national champion Miami Hurricanes, head coach Bobby Ross inserted Reich into the lineup in place of Stan Gelbaugh, and Reich proceeded to complete 12 of 16 passes for 260 yards and three touchdowns in propelling the Terps to a 42-40 victory in the Orange Bowl.

Eight years later, on Jan. 3, 1993, Reich met destiny again as he led the Buffalo Bills to the greatest comeback in pro football annals. As in the Miami game in 1984, Reich came off the bench and performed his heroics against a top-notch opponent. This time the foe was the Houston Oilers, who appeared on their way to an easy playoff win by building a 35-3 lead early in the second half.

Reich, however, wasn't deterred. Filling in for the injured Jim Kelly, he demonstrated grace under fire by throwing for a career-high 289 yards and four touchdowns as the Bills went on to win 41-38 in overtime.

Reich led Maryland to victory after trailing 31-0 at the half.

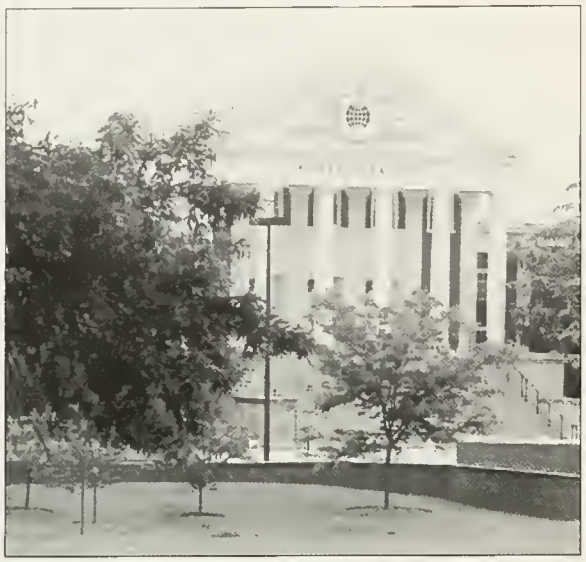
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND



LEADING THE WAY INTO THE 21ST CENTURY

- A Carnegie Research-I University
- Member, Association of American Universities (AAU)
- Flagship of the University System of Maryland
- Division I NCAA Athletics

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Ten years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment.

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The Campus

The University of Maryland, College Park, is the most comprehensive institution of higher education, research and service in the state. The university offers 100 undergraduate majors, 88 master's programs and 69 doctoral programs in 13 colleges and schools.

The university is one of only 30 public research universities that are members of the prestigious 58-member Association of American Universities. It is classified as a Research-I university by the Carnegie Foundation by virtue of the range of its baccalaureate programs, the amount of federal support received and the number of doctoral degrees awarded each year, sharing that honor with the top research universities in the country.

Among the public universities in the Association of American Universities, Maryland ranks among the top in percentage of African-American undergraduate students. In addition, the university has the largest number of African-Americans and other minority members among its peers.

Flagship Status

In 1988, the University of Maryland, College Park, was designated as the flagship institution for the University System of Maryland. As well as pursuing a serious research mission and continuing its high level of service to the state, the university rededicated itself to providing the highest quality graduate and undergraduate education. Increased undergraduate opportunities for research and individual study; the development of the College Park Scholars Program and the expansion of the University Honors Program; the genesis of Honors Humanities and Gemstone; the creation of CORE, the general education program; and the establishment of the Center for Teaching Excellence all affirmed the legislature's designation of flagship.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The University of Maryland features a diversity of cultural and recreational activities. Four art galleries, more than 200 annual musical performances and countless dance and theater productions, expose audiences to the broadest range of programs in the arts. And intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

A Wired World

Students at the University of Maryland are part of an academic community that enjoys free access to networked computer resources and facilities that are among the best in the country. Free computer accounts enable users to store class work on a networked server, download classroom support materials and other electronic information from campus networked resources such as inforM, or send electronic mail to faculty, fellow students or friends at other universities.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

College of Agriculture and Natural Resources

The College of Agriculture and Natural Resources offers a variety of academic programs that apply science, management, design, and engineering to improve the world in which we live and work. Feeding the world population, developing scientifically-based land use practices and policies, understanding animal and plant biology, improving nutrition and its effects on human health, and profitably managing farms and agribusinesses in harmony with ecosystems are all vital concerns of the college.

School of Architecture

The School of Architecture offers a four-year undergraduate program leading to the bachelor of science degree in architecture, and a graduate program leading to the professional master of architecture. The undergraduate major in architecture is designed to minimize the time required to complete the curriculum leading to the professional degree. Students receive rigorous and comprehensive instruction from a faculty whose members are active in professional practice or research. Many faculty members have distinguished themselves across the professional spectrum and represent different approaches to architectural design. The B.S. degree in architecture will qualify graduates to pursue a career in any number of fields, such as construction, real estate development, public administration, or historic preservation, or to continue in graduate work in professional fields such as architecture, urban planning, or law.

College of Arts and Humanities

The College of Arts and Humanities embraces a heterogeneous group of disciplines, all of which value the development of critical thinking, fluent expression in writing and speech, sensitivity to ethical and aesthetic standards, and a complex understanding of history and culture. Preparation provides valuable background for careers in a broad range of fields.

College of Behavioral and Social Sciences

The College of Behavioral and Social Sciences is comprised of a diverse group of disciplines and fields of study all of which emphasize a broad liberal arts education as the foundation for understanding the environmental, social and cultural forces that shape our world. Disciplines in the behavioral and social sciences use approaches that range from the scientific to the philosophical, from the experimental to the theoretical.

Robert H. Smith School of Business

The Robert H. Smith School of Business recognizes the importance of education in business and management to economic, social, and professional development through profit and non-profit organizations at the local, regional, national and international levels. The faculty are scholars, teachers, and professional leaders with a commitment to superior education in business and management, specializing in accounting, finance, decision and information sciences, management science and statistics, management and organization, marketing, logistics and transportation, and business and public policy.

College of Computer, Mathematical, and Physical Sciences

The College of Computer, Mathematical, and Physical Sciences contributes very substantially and effectively to the research activities of the University of Maryland. This college is like a technical institute within a large university. Students majoring in any one of the disciplines encompassed by the college have the opportunity of obtaining an outstanding education in their field.

College of Education

The College of Education is a professional college committed to advancing the science and art of teaching/learning, including the practices and processes which occur from infancy through adulthood in both school and non-school settings. The college's mission is to provide preparation for current and future teachers, counselors, administrators, educational specialists, and other related educational personnel, and to create and disseminate the knowledge needed by professionals and policy makers in education and related fields.

A. James Clark School of Engineering

The mission of the Clark School of Engineering is to provide quality engineering education, with sufficient scope to include both fundamental and specialized engineering training, so that graduates are prepared to serve the current and emerging needs of society. In addition to its teaching role, the school feels a related responsibility to conduct strong research programs that contribute to the advancement of knowledge.

College of Health and Human Performance

The College of Health and Human Performance provides preparation leading to the bachelor of science degree in the following professional areas: physical education (K-12), health education (school and community), and family studies. The college also offers curricula in kinesiological sciences and safety education. In addition, each department offers a wide variety of courses for all university students.

College of Journalism

Located just nine miles from the nation's capital and 30 miles from the bustling commercial port of Baltimore, the College of Journalism is one of six comprehensive journalism schools in the 10 states stretching from New York to Virginia — the nation's most populous region. But the college has a lot more than geography going for it. The National Assessment of Journalism Education by the Freedom Forum Media Studies Center at Columbia University designated the college one of "Eleven Exemplary Journalism schools" nationwide: those that surpass others in criteria including teaching, research, facilities and job placement.

College of Library and Information Services

The College of Library and Information Services offers degree programs for individuals interested in careers in information services and management. At the master's level, students may specialize in several fields, including archival studies, geographic information systems, health information services, school library media services, and science and technology information systems.

College of Life Sciences

The College of Life Sciences offers educational opportunities for students in subject matters relating to living organisms and their interaction with one another and with the environment. Programs of study include those involving the most fundamental concepts of biological science and chemistry and the use of knowledge in daily life, as well as the application of economic and engineering principles in planning the improvement of life.

School of Public Affairs

The School of Public Affairs provides graduate-level, professional education to men and women interested in careers in public service. Five disciplines are emphasized: finance, statistics, economics, politics, and ethics. Students specialize in international security and economic policy, public sector financial management, environmental policy, or social policy.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DID YOU KNOW?

• Maryland has top 20 ranked programs in engineering, computer science, physics, journalism, business, art history, economics, criminology, mathematics, oceanography, astronomy, education, agricultural economics and others.

• The University Honors Program was selected as one of the nation's nine best in ARCO's Guide to Ivy League Programs at State School Prices.

• The university collaborates with more than 280 businesses through its Maryland Industrial Partnerships program. The university's incubator has spawned 20 new companies; three have been recognized as among the fastest growing in the state.

• Maryland is the only university in the southeast quadrant of the United States to have both engineering and business programs ranked in the top 25 by U.S. News and World Report. The College of Education also ranks in the top 25.

• Maryland is in the top three of non-historically black institutions in number of African-Americans receiving bachelor's degrees.

• In a 1995 study, the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice was rated the highest quality research program in the nation by the Journal of Criminal Justice Education.

• The College of Journalism was selected as one of two sites in the U.S. for the Hubert H. Humphrey Fellowship Program, and named one of the nation's top communications programs by the Gannett Center for Media Studies.

• Last year, faculty researchers at Maryland were awarded more than $155 million in competitively funded research and development awards.

• No other university in the Mid-Atlantic Region has more top 20 graduate programs in computer, mathematical, physical sciences, and engineering disciplines than the University of Maryland, according to a recent analysis by the National Research Council.

• With more than 900 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region.

• The reputation of the School of Music promises to grow when the $100 million Maryland Center for the Performing Arts opens in 2000.

MORE, BETTER STUDENTS WANT TO GO TO MARYLAND

The University of Maryland projects another record-breaking year for the quality of admitted students. The number of applications, GPAs and SAT scores all were up from the same time last year.

For the last 10 years, the quality of students being admitted to the University of Maryland has risen steadily. Average GPAs for incoming freshmen have risen from just under 3.0 to a projected 3.69, SAT scores of the middle 50 percent have gone from 980-1,150 to a projected 1,170-1,340, and the number of students with SAT scores above 1,300 has increased from 234 to a projected 1,155.

The University of Maryland has the state's largest concentration of academically talented students, with more than one-third of them enrolled in the invitation-only Honors, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholar or Gemstone programs.

NO BETTER PLACE TO BE...

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland. As Washingtonian magazine noted in its December, 1997 issue, "...kids are turning down schools like Princeton and Virginia to go to College Park." With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. For instance, in the 1999 U.S. News and World Report rankings of graduate schools, the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 17th in the nation, the School of Public Affairs was ranked 20th, and the College of Education placed 23rd. The Maryland School of Business was ranked 26th, and also was named one of the country's 25 best business schools for entrepreneurs by Success magazine. And, the university's School of Music was ranked 30th in the country in the first U.S. News and World Report reputational survey of arts programs since 1994.

For exceptional students seeking an exceptional education at the University of Maryland, College Park, there are a number of programs designed to enrich the learning experience. Among them are the Honors Program, ranked among the nine best in the country by ARCO's Guide to Ivy League Programs at State School Prices; College Park Scholars, which encourages students who share common intellectual interests to live and study together in 10 specialty areas; and the Gemstone Program, which links student teams from engineering, the humanities, business and the physical sciences in a four-year research project.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world — National Archives II — moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internship and work-study opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide. The Kennedy Center alone houses the National Symphony Orchestra, five performance stages, an opera company, and the American Film Institute. In Baltimore, one of the great ports of the world, the Inner Harbor has become a cultural magnet for thousands of tourists each year, offering the National Aquarium, the Maryland Science Center, and other attractions.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland, College Park offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.

C.D. (Dan) Mote Jr. took office as president in September 1998 with a clear vision for taking the University of Maryland down the home stretch to its destiny as one of America's great research universities.

Mote came to Maryland from the University of California at Berkeley, where he had earned all of his degrees, and where he had served in faculty and administration more than 30 years. He had most recently been vice chancellor for university relations.

In Maryland, he found a university already well on its way to achieving the greatness envisioned when the General Assembly declared it the flagship institution of the University System of Maryland. Mote immediately took a leadership role on the Governor's Task Force on Governance, Coordination and Funding of the University System of Maryland to gain greater autonomy and flexibility for the university to pursue its goals. He followed that by working closely with state leaders to boost university funding for new programs, scholarships and faculty, gaining a 10 percent appropriations increase in his first year.

When the legislature had finished its work for the year, Mote spelled out in his inauguration address his vision of Maryland as a great research university, where teaching and research are "inseparable." In this plan, the faculty creates a culture of excellence that permeates the university, student success is the center of all activity, and the extended Maryland family of alumni and friends grows rich in pride and tradition.

In his inaugural address, Mote observed that "a decade ago, we dreamed the impossible – the great research university. Then we sought the improbable – the great research university. Soon we will grasp the inevitable – the great research university."

High achievement has been Dan Mote's life, from his student days at the University of California through his years as an outstanding teacher and world-renowned researcher and his leadership of a highly successful capital campaign at Berkeley. He arrived in College Park determined to continue the same level of achievement in his new post.

After earning his doctorate in engineering mechanics from Berkeley in 1963, Mote spent a year as a research fellow at the University of Birmingham in England, then three years as assistant professor of mechanical engineering at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh before returning to Berkeley in 1967.

There he stayed for more than 30 years before coming to Maryland. He was promoted to professor in 1973.

Mote served two terms as vice chair of mechanical engineering and served as chair from 1987 to 1991. At that time, he was appointed to the endowed FANUC Chair in mechanical systems, in addition to being named vice chancellor for university relations, the post he held until accepting the presidency at Maryland in 1998. Mote has participated with distinction in every phase of the academic enterprise, including classroom teaching, working with students, basic research, applied research and service to the university and the community.

Much respected by his students, Mote earned the 1971 Distinguished Teaching Award and the 1975 Pi Tau Sigma Excellence in Teaching Award for the University of California. He has supervised the research of more than 50 doctoral students, including several who are still in progress, and more than 60 master's theses. He has continued teaching and supervising graduate students even during his administrative assignments, and several of his graduate students from Berkeley commute to Maryland to meet with him as they finish their dissertations. Mote has stated his intention to teach and work with graduate students at Maryland as well.

Mote's research activities have focused on dynamic systems, instrumentation, vibration and biomechanics. He has achieved international recognition for his work on the stability of gyroscopic systems, including high-speed translating and rotating systems such as circular and band saws, computer memory disks and tapes. He also has researched the biomechanics of skiing injuries and the development of safer ski bindings. His research has resulted in more than 300 scholarly publications as well as patents in the United States, Norway, Finland and Sweden.

He was elected to the prestigious National Academy of Engineering in 1988, and in that same year was awarded the Humboldt Prize by the Federal Republic of Germany. In 1991, the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science awarded him a fellowship.

In 1992, he conceived, designed and implemented a $1.1 billion comprehensive capital campaign, which has exceeded $1 billion to date.

During Mote's first year at Maryland, the university's ongoing capital campaign, Bold Vision• Bright Future, passed the half-way point more than four months ahead of schedule and recorded an all-time record for one month with more than $29 million raised in April 1999. The April figure included two gifts totaling $23 million that were given in part to celebrate his inauguration.

But Mote has said repeatedly that development and capital campaigns are not principally about raising money.

"They are about the university building relationships with its alumni and friends of the university through the quality people and quality programs on campus. If we succeed in building authentic relationships, fund-raising happens as naturally as the women's lacrosse team scores a goal."

Mote and his wife Patsy live in the President's Residence on the College Park campus. They have two grown children and four grandchildren.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR DEBORAH A. YOW

Dr. Deborah A. Yow has led Terrapin athletics to balanced budgets, high levels of productivity and achievement and a vigorous commitment to excellence throughout its operations. She is beginning her sixth year as Maryland's director of athletics.

Since taking over at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all five of the more than $25 million annual budgets (the first balanced budgets for the Terrapins in 10 years).
- Improved graduation rates for student-athletes, above that of the general student population, in three of those five years.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 10 percent of all NCAA Division I schools.
- Reorganized and upgraded marketing and fundraising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 85% and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 270% during her tenure at Maryland.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Paid off $7 million in operating debt accrued before her arrival in 1994.
- Significantly improved customer service in every area.

YOW WILL ASSUME THE PRESIDENCY OF NACDA IN JULY 2000.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past five years, Debbie Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves." As a manager and leader, she clearly models these principles.

"WE ARE PLEASED, BUT WE ARE NOT SATISFIED ... OUR VISION IS TO BE ONE OF THE TOP 10 PROGRAMS IN THE NATION CONSISTENTLY ... WE SEE NO REASON TO SETTLE FOR LESS."
— DEBORAH A. YOW

Dr. Yow is a member of the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee. In addition, she will become president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in July 2000, and was recently singled out by Street & Smith Sports Business Journal as one of the leading athletic administrators in the U.S.

A former basketball coach, she began her coaching career at the high school level in North Carolina before taking over as head women's coach at the University of Kentucky in 1976. She also achieved an outstanding coaching record as head coach at the University of Florida. She later moved into athletic administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics, management, and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the football program, Yow realistically points out, "Our coaching staff has made great strides in restructuring the Terrapin football program. Our return to a balanced offensive attack, a strong emphasis on defense and special teams and the terrific turnaround in the overall academic focus of our football team will soon show up in our competitive success. We will become consistent contenders for postseason bowls as our very young football team matures and develops under excellent coaching."

Summing up the entire Terrapin athletic program, Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our successes ... and the basis for our bright future."

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

Rob Mullens

Sr. Associate A.D./ Internal Operations

Rob Mullens, who joined the Terps' staff as assistant athletic director for business in the summer of 1996, was elevated to associate athletic director for administration in January 1999 and to senior associate athletic director for internal operations in February.

Mullens assists the athletic director with the overall administration of the athletic department's internal operations in addition to assisting with the operation of football and men's basketball. He also oversees the supervision of 15 sports and is responsible for overseeing the business office, ticket office, facilities and operations, and the computer systems analyst.

As the chief financial officer, Mullens is directly responsible for the department's $25 million annual budget.

Mullens graduated cum laude in 1991 from West Virginia with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in sport management at West Virginia in 1993. Prior to his appointment at Maryland, he was senior business manager and the chief budget officer for the University of Miami (Fla.) athletic department (1994-96).

His background in athletics includes serving as an intern for the senior associate director of athletics at Kentucky (1993) and as a graduate assistant to the assistant athletic director for business at West Virginia (1992-93). Prior to pursuing a career in athletics, Mullens worked for the accounting firm Ernst and Young.

He is married to the former Jane Pearson, who is the Terrapins' assistant athletic director for compliance.

Joe Hull

Associate A.D./ External Relations

Joe Hull joined the University of Maryland athletic staff as associate athletic director for external relations in December 1997 following 12 years in various athletic fund-raising, ticketing and marketing capacities at North Carolina State University.

At Maryland, Hull oversees all fund-raising efforts for the Terrapins' athletic program, including the Terrapin Club, M Club, Maryland Educational Foundation, and major gift fund-raising office.

In addition, Hull serves as the point person for the university's proposed new arena project. His duties relevant to the arena process include coordinating the efforts to find a naming gift or sponsorship, designing and managing a capital campaign to help fund arena construction, and working with the architects, construction manager and Maryland Stadium Authority to design and build the arena.

Prior to his arrival in College Park, he was associate director of the NC State Student Aid Association (Wolfpack Club), which raises more than $6 million annually for athletic scholarships from its more than 11,000 members/contributors. The Wolfpack Club also was responsible for raising more than $50 million for the construction of a 20,000-seat sports arena.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in business management from North Carolina State University in 1978, a law degree from Campbell University in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1985.

His wife, JoAnn, formerly served as an assistant attorney general for the State of North Carolina. They have two children, Josie (8) and Josiah (5).

Dave Haglund

Associate A.D./ Media Relations

Dave Haglund joined the University of Maryland athletic staff in January of 1998 following a 16-year career in the sports information office at Fresno State University. At Maryland he serves as the administrative head of the Terrapins' media relations unit, overseeing the development and implementation of initiatives to provide publicity for the university's 25 varsity sports and more than 600 student-athletes.

He was promoted to associate athletic director in February 1999 and assumed responsibilities as sport supervisor for men's and women's lacrosse and men's and women's swimming.

A 1981 graduate of Oregon State University, Haglund began his sports information career as an assistant SID at Fresno State in 1981 and was elevated to sports information director in 1996. During the course of his career at Fresno State, he served as the primary contact person for the Bulldogs' nationally ranked Division I football, basketball, baseball and soccer programs. Fresno State led the nation in attendance in baseball, soccer and softball and was among the West Coast leaders in attendance in men's basketball during his time at the central California school. He also served as information director of the California Bowl (1982-83) for two years.

Haglund and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of two children: Samantha (6) and Matthew (3).

Kathleen Worthington

Associate A.D./ Internal Operations

Kathleen Worthington was named associate athletic director for internal operations in May and assumed her responsibilities in July. She comes to Maryland from Morehead State University, where she had served as associate A.D. since February 1998 after spending two years as an assistant athletic director.

At Maryland, Worthington is responsible for supervision of baseball, volleyball, women's basketball, women's gymnastics, men's and women's track, and men's and women's cross country. She also oversees the sports medicine and strength and conditioning units in addition to managing ACC and NCAA tournaments hosted by the university.

During her time at Morehead State, her primary focus was business operations, compliance, policy development, external relations and strategic planning. Prior to Morehead State, Worthington spent two years as the assistant to the AD at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

She also has served as a marketing and media relations specialist and as director of athletics and community youth programs for Catholic Charities, Eastern Region, in New York state.

She earned her bachelor's degree in mass communications from the College of Notre Dame in Maryland in 1985. She earned a master's degree in public relations from Syracuse and a master's in athletics administration from Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

She was inducted into College of Notre Dame's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

CURT CALLAHAN

ASSISTANT A.D./ OPERATIONS & FACILITIES

Curt Callahan, a veteran member of the Terrapins' athletic staff, is in his 11th season overseeing Maryland's athletic operations and facilities and his 21st as an assistant wrestling coach. He was named the department's facilities coordinator in 1989 and was elevated to assistant athletic director in 1997.

As the key contact person on operations and facilities, Callahan manages the department's vast athletic complex, including Byrd Stadium and Cole Field House. In recent years, he played an instrumental role in three major building projects: the upper deck addition to Byrd Stadium, the construction of the Gossett Football Team House, and the completion of the James H. Kehoe Track and Field Facility and Ludwig Soccer Field. His game management responsibilities have included overseeing numerous NCAA lacrosse tournaments held in College Park.

His tenure at the university dates to his undergraduate days as a wrestler in the late 1960s, when he played an integral role in the Terps winning four consecutive ACC wrestling championships. Callahan was a two-time conference champion, winning individual titles in 1969 and '70. He was 22-1 as a junior, his only loss coming to NCAA and eventual Olympic champion Dan Gable of Iowa.

Callahan was a two-time qualifier to the U.S. Olympic Trials, reaching the finals in 1972 and '76. In both years, he finished fourth nationally in Greco-Roman at 149.5 pounds.

His wife's name is Sandy.

DEMETRIUS MARLOWE

ASSISTANT A.D./ ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Demetrius Marlowe is in his third year as assistant athletic director for academic support and career development. Marlowe oversees and directs the academic support unit for all student-athletes, and is developing career development initiatives for all of Maryland's student-athletes as part of a comprehensive life-skills program.

Marlowe came to Maryland from Syracuse University, where he served as the academic coordinator for football for three years. At Syracuse, he was responsible for all academic support services for the football program. His duties included the development, implementation and evaluation of pre-season orientations, study tables and tutorial services, the development and monitoring of continuing eligibility, and academic progress toward degree processes.

In addition, his contribution to Syracuse University led to one of the country's first NCAA/CHAMPS Life Skills programs for student-athletes. He also worked as an academic counselor at the University of Notre Dame.

Marlowe has worked in an environment which sustained a student-athlete graduation rate of 85 percent, and he has been described as one of the "most innovative leaders in forwarding the mission of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes."

He and his wife, Alison, have three children: Janay Miller (12), Shay (14) and Samuel (3).

JANE MULLENS

ASSISTANT A.D./ COMPLIANCE SWA

Jane Mullens was named assistant athletic director for compliance in May 1998 after spending the previous two years as the department's compliance coordinator.

She serves as the department's senior level manager in NCAA compliance and certification matters related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education.

In February 1999, she was promoted to senior women's administrator. Her responsibilities were expanded to include the supervision of four sports programs: softball, field hockey and men's and women's tennis.

Mullens earned a bachelor's degree from Western Washington University in 1992 and a master's in sport management from University of Miami (Fla.) in 1994.

She was an assistant in the compliance office at Miami in 1995 before being promoted to compliance coordinator in January 1996. As compliance coordinator for the Hurricanes, she was responsible for creating and implementing a rules-education program and creating and monitoring documentation related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education.

She was named to a similar position at the University of Maryland in July 1996. She began her career in athletic compliance as an intern at Miami in 1994.

She is married to Rob Mullens, Maryland's senior associate athletic director for internal operations.

CHARLES WELLFORD

FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Charles F. Wellford, acting associate provost and dean of the Office of Continuing Education, is in his fourth year as the University of Maryland's faculty athletic representative. Dr. Wellford also serves as the director of the University of Maryland Center for Applied Policy Studies, the Maryland Justice Analysis Center and is a professor of criminology and criminal justice.

He was elected president of the Atlantic Coast Conference for the 1999-2000 academic year, and currently chairs the University of Maryland's Athletic Council. He previously served on the Athletic Council from 1986-89 and 1992-95.

At the University of Maryland, Dr. Wellford has been involved in a variety of efforts. He was chair of the department of criminology and criminal justice from 1981-95 and was the director of the office of academic computing services from 1992-98. He is chair of the law and justice committee and the National Academy of Sciences.

He serves on numerous state and federal advisory boards and commissions, and is a past (1995-96) president of the American Society of Criminology (ASC).

Dr. Wellford received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Maryland and his Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

The University of Maryland considers intercollegiate athletics an integral part of the collegiate experience. Its existence provides an opportunity for students, faculty, alumni and students to share in the life of intercollegiate athletics.

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to achieve the same standards of excellence in its athletics program as exist within the university's teaching, research and public service programs. The department embraces the concept that the student-athlete is first and foremost a student, possessing academic abilities, personal interests and ambitions comparable to those of the other members of the student body.

The mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit, headed by assistant athletic director Demetrius Marlowe, is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that enhance the academic progress, facilitate the career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of every student-athlete.

The recently remodeled Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin Student-Athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is housed in Cole Field House. It features a 24-station computer lab, study table room, tutorial room, and individual offices for five full-time counselors, an academic support coordinator, and two graduate assistants. In addition, an academic counselor and an auxiliary computer lab are housed in the Gossett Football Team House at Byrd Stadium.

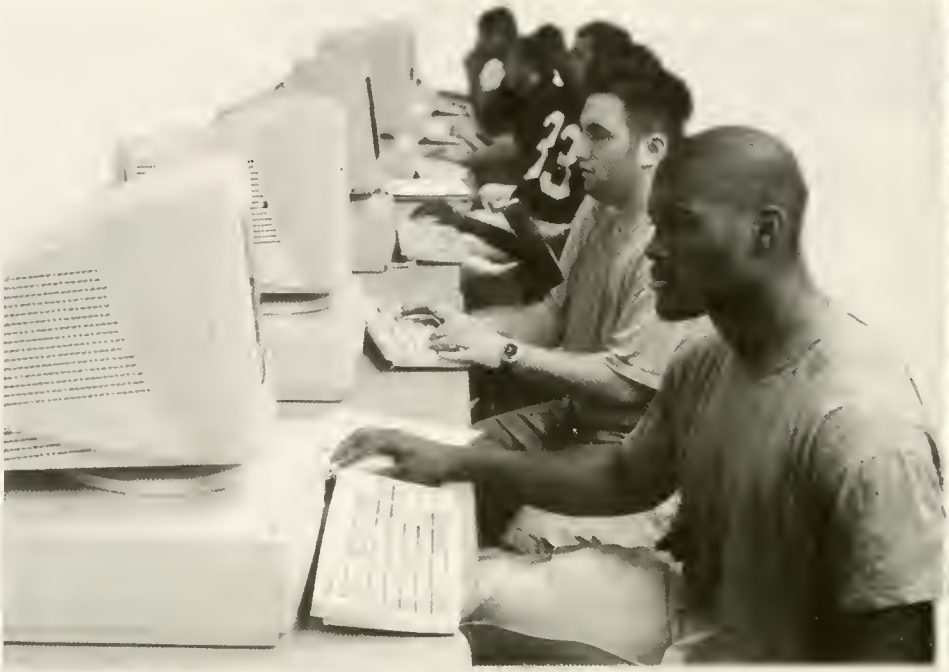
Programs and services offered by the Academic Support and Career Development Unit include the following:

- Prospective student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- Academic planning
- Academic monitoring
- Academic record keeping
- Academic, personal, and career development enhancement programs
- Structured study table
- Tutorial support
- Computer skills development
- Peer mentor program
- Career development program

MAPS Directory

This directory, the Maryland Athletes Placement Source, is produced annually by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin their professional careers.

Distributed to more than 1,000 corporations and businesses around the nation, prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resumé information relating to academic, career and personal achievements.



The University of Maryland athletic department embraces the concept that the student-athlete is first and foremost a student.

Terp Choices

Terp Choices is a program designed to guide student-athletes by orienting, supporting and increasing awareness of the relevant issues pertaining to student-athletes in today's world. The focus of the program is making personal choices and how they may affect an entire team, not just a single individual. Education and interactive workshops are presented to the athletic team and are led by student educators.

The Mentorship Program

The Terrapin Career Mentorship program involves an alumni-based group of individuals who are interested in working with graduating student-athletes. The mentors aid students through the process of making the transition from college to the work world. Attempts are made to match the individual student-athlete with a mentor from the same field of interest. Mentors are asked to assist the student-athlete in preparing the necessary tools to make him or her a more competitive job seeker.

Internship Program

The Internship Program is offered every spring to student-athletes who have earned 40 and 80 credits. The goal is to secure local summer internships for all interested student-athletes in an appropriate field of study.

Career Information Fairs

Career Awareness in Academic Support is expanding to include a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the semester. Career awareness is an ongoing process and includes assistance with resume writing and interview skills. The end of the semester brings a career awareness fair which hosts a number of professionals with whom student-athletes can learn about career interests and planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen area of interest.

Team Maryland

Team Maryland is a class taught in conjunction with the campus' James McGregor Burns Academy of Leadership in which student-athletes are exposed to leadership and public speaking skills and techniques. The program consists of a group of volunteer student-athletes who learn about the challenges for children in the community by speaking to different elementary schools about drug abuse and the importance of education. In addition to school visits, Team Maryland has hosted visits from local schools to our campus.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council consists of representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The main purpose of the council is to provide the student-athletes and administration a forum for dialogue. The most important function is to express issues and concerns of the student-athlete population and to have the administration address these issues in the best way possible. Discussions between the student-athletes and the administration are vital to the success of the council and the athletic department.

Support Staff

Working closely with members of the Maryland football team in their academic pursuits is Heather Arianna of the Academic Support and Career Development Office, headed by assistant athletic director Demetrius Marlowe. Arianna, an assistant director of academic support and career development, is in her fifth year at Maryland. She received a bachelor's degree from Syracuse in 1992 and a master's degree in college student personnel services from Louisville in 1994. Assisting Arianna is former Terp lineman Ryan Rezzelle, who completed his eligibility in the fall of 1998. Rezzelle is a two-time winner of the George C. Cook Memorial Award for having the highest GPA on the football team, and last spring was a recipient of an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

MEDICAL STAFF

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's sports medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Orthopedic surgeon Leigh Ann Curl, M.D., serves as the head team physician. Dr. Curl is part of the growing University Sports Medicine program of the University of Maryland Medical Center, which also provides medical care for the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL, UMBC, Coppin State University and 14 high schools.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. Dr. Curl is an excellent physician who understands college athletics. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools, like North Carolina, Virginia, Duke and Wake Forest."

Leigh Ann Curl, M.D.
Head Team Physician

Leigh Ann Curl, a former All-American basketball player at the University of Connecticut and a 1998 inductee into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame, is beginning her third year as Maryland's head team physician.

Dr. Curl, who is a member of the University of Maryland School of Medicine faculty as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery, has performed volunteer work as team physician for USA Basketball, USA Rugby, Johns Hopkins University, St. John's University, the New York Mets and the New York City public schools recreation program.

She received her medical degree in 1989 from Johns Hopkins, where she served her internship and residency. She was a fellow in sports medicine and shoulder surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery at Cornell University Medical Center in New York City.

Dr. Curl graduated summa cum laude from the University of Connecticut in 1985 and was her class valedictorian. She was a four-year starter on the women's basketball team, serving two years as team captain, and became the third women's basketball player in school history to score 1,000 points. She currently ranks 10th in career points and fifth in rebounds at UConn. A two-time GTE Academic All-America, Curl also was a two-time Big East Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Student Health Center

Dr. Sacared Bodison and Dr. Stephen Fahey are the two full-time campus health center physicians who specialize in sports medicine. Dr. Bodison is the assistant director of medical services at the health center and has been involved with the care of student-athletes since 1982. Dr. Fahey is an emergency physician who is in his 10th year working with the Terrapins. Dr. Bodison and Dr. Fahey are available to treat student-athletes daily on an as-needed basis in the health center. In addition, Dr. Margaret Bridwell serves as director of the Student Health Center and is a member of the Maryland Athletic Council.

"When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care."

Athletic Training Staff

Sandy Worth
Head Trainer

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' football program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of five full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 600 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992.

During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships — four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Worth was the head trainer for the 1989 and '93 U.S. women's lacrosse teams which won World Cup championships.

Michael Meyers
Assistant Trainer

Michael Meyers is in his third year on the athletic training staff at the University of Maryland. He works directly with the football and women's basketball programs.

Meyers came to College Park from Morgan State University, where he was a member of the training staff for two years. A native of Woodbridge, Va., Meyers began his career in athletic training at Norfolk State University. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Old Dominion and his master's degree in health care administration from the University of Maryland, University College.

He and his wife, Kelly, have two sons, John and Matthew, and are expecting a baby in July.

Brant Berkstresser
Assistant Trainer

Brant Berkstresser was named an assistant athletic trainer for football at the University of Maryland in October of 1997. Prior to his arrival in College Park, Berkstresser spent four years as an assistant trainer at Kansas State where he was the head trainer for men's basketball and an assistant trainer in football. He was a graduate assistant at Kansas State from 1991-93. In the summer of 1990, he interned with the New York Jets.

He earned a bachelor's of science degree in education with an emphasis in athletic training from West Virginia in 1991 and a master's in kinesiology from Kansas State in 1993. His wife's name is Gretchen.

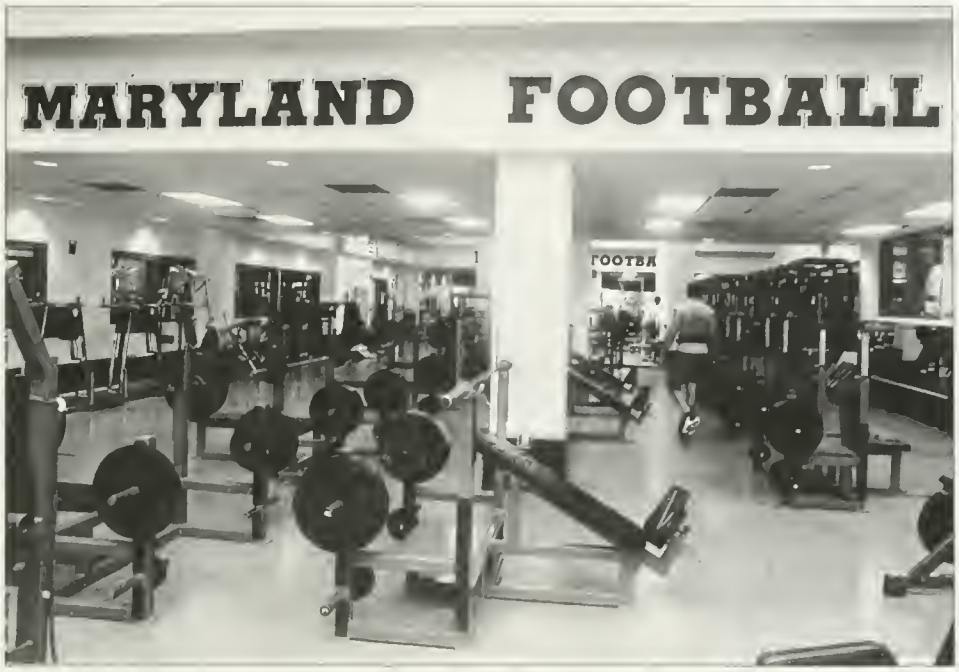
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Maryland's strength and conditioning staff makes every effort to accommodate the individual training needs of each member of the Terps' football team.



Members of the Maryland football team (below) enjoy first-class athletic facilities, including the Terps' well-equipped weight room in the Gossett Football Team House.

In the highly competitive collegiate football world of the '90s, the off-field preparation of the student-athlete is a critical component to the on-field success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt, Maryland's director of strength and conditioning, believes strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development.

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics, and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention on the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The weight training facility in the Gossett Football Team House is more than 7,000 square feet in size.

The Terrapins are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the United States. Conveniently located in the Gossett Football Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the playing field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Maryland football players train with some of the best equipment available, including 20,000 pounds of customized York free weights, seven pieces of Keiser progressive air resistance machines, and a full line of Hammer strength equipment. The weight complex also features immense, self-contained power rack stations, Olympic lifting platforms with Eleiko bumper plates, and 10 upper body pressing stations.

A meaningful goal of every Terrapin football player is achievement of the prestigious "Iron Terp" award, which is recognized twice a year to those team members who achieve extremely challenging strength goals, based on body weight. It is a great honor and matter of pride to earn an "Iron Terp" award, and the Terps must "train to win" to accomplish this.

Members of the Maryland football program follow a structured year-round weight training program.

TERRAPIN CLUB

Providing Scholarships for Today's Student-Athletes

What is the Terrapin Club?

As the scholarship fund-raising arm of the athletic department, the Terrapin Club is composed of approximately 4,500 members who contribute money annually to help pay the scholarship costs of our student-athletes. For many student-athletes, scholarships are the only means available to continue their education; for others, scholarships provide the opportunity to compete at the highest level of athletic competition in America's premier conference, the Atlantic Coast Conference.

With nearly 600 student-athletes, 400 of whom benefit from scholarship support, the scholarship bill for the coming year is approximately $4.5 million. For the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1999, the Terrapin Club contributed approximately $2.9 million toward scholarships.

How Much Should I Contribute?

As a Terrapin Club member, you can contribute the minimum of $125 or any higher amount. Your benefits of membership, however, do vary depending on your level and amount of contribution. The Terrapin Club is composed of seven levels of membership, ranging from the Top Terp level, where members contribute at least $10,000 per year, to the Silver level, where members contribute $125 per year.

What Benefits Do I Receive for Being a Member?

Members of the Terrapin Club directly assist the university in providing athletic scholarships. In addition, benefits of membership include priority seating for football and basketball, preferred parking, a monthly newsletter, and invitations to receptions and Terrapin Club events. Furthermore, you must be a member of the Terrapin Club to purchase men's basketball season tickets.

What Methods of Contributing are Available?

Direct gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa or Mastercard). As a donor, you have the option of contributing once annually or periodically throughout the year.

The University of Maryland Foundation (the depository for scholarship money) qualifies for most charitable matching gift programs. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

Is My Donation Tax Deductible?

Current federal income tax laws allow a charitable deduction of 80 percent of a contribution to an educational institution, when the result of such a contribution is seating rights for athletic events. Please consult your individual tax advisor for additional information.

How is My Seat Location Determined?

Ticket assignments for football and basketball and all special events (the ACC Tournament, bowl games, etc.) are based on a point system designed to reward loyalty and total dollar contributions. Terpoints also are awarded for consecutive years of participation and referrals of new members.

MAJOR GIFT FUNDRAISING

Maryland Educational Foundation 'Endowments for the Future'

The primary mission of the Maryland Educational Foundation (MEF) is to provide scholarship endowment funds in support of the athletic department's annual athletic scholarship expenses. By supporting talented, deserving student-athletes, donors ensure that our legacy of excellence will continue and grow. For more than 50 years, the MEF has provided financial support for Maryland athletics and is an important part of the department's gift-giving program. The vision of the MEF is to raise enough dollars through private gifts to build an endowment capable of permanently funding many of the university's scholarships now being awarded.

What is an endowment? An endowment is a gift in which the principal is held in perpetuity, with only the income used (in part or whole) for scholarships. The MEF invites you to discuss gifts such as cash, securities, real estate, insurance, personal property, life income, gifts of pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities, wills and bequests. An endowment gift is truly a significant investment in the future of Maryland athletics. Contact Greg Manning at (301) 314-7020 if you would like more information.

Major Gifts 'Building on a Winning Tradition'

The continued excellence of the University of Maryland athletics program is greatly enhanced by the support it receives through private gifts beyond the annual Terrapin Club contributions. Cash gifts for capital projects truly distinguish any great institution's athletic program, thus guaranteeing a future as rich as its past. A gift of cash is the most critical type of donation to the Major Gifts Development Unit. Quality athletic facilities attract top-notch student-athletes to our university, and they attract alumni and friends back to campus to enjoy Maryland Terrapins intercollegiate athletic competition.

The primary focus of the Major Gifts program is to refurbish existing facilities and build new ones. Our most significant project at this time is the proposed new arena. We currently have many excellent naming opportunities available. If you have an interest in a naming opportunity, or in making a major gift in support of Maryland athletics, please call Greg Manning or Cheryl Harrison at (301) 314-7020. They will be delighted to show you how both the donor and Terrapin athletics can benefit from a major gift to the University of Maryland.

THE M CLUB

A 76-year Tradition of Athletes Helping Athletes

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,000 former Maryland varsity athletes.

David Diehl
Executive Director

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for the 25 varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund and support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts. Members receive the monthly athletic department publication (TerpTalk) for information about the current teams and news about your former teammates.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization. Stay involved with Maryland athletics.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020.

Remember the M Club, "Athletes Helping Athletes."

BYRD STADIUM

Byrd Stadium has been home to national championship football and men's and women's lacrosse teams, and to more than 50 ACC track and field champions. It hosted the Queen of England at a football game, and was the stage where the greatest high hurdler in history, Renaldo Nehemiah, performed his amazing feats. It also has been a regular site for the NCAA men's lacrosse Final Four, where several attendance records have been shattered.

Byrd Stadium — it's the first-class home of the Maryland Terrapins.

Situated at the foot of the campus' North Hill, the stadium is named for Dr. H.C. Byrd, a multi-sport athlete as an undergraduate who later became head football coach and eventually served as university president. His vision gave University of Maryland preeminence among Eastern campus sports facilities for decades and the impetus for the Terrapins to win more ACC championships than any league school.

Since opening on Sept. 30, 1950, when Maryland defeated Navy 35-21 in the dedication game before a school-record crowd of 43,386 fans, Byrd has undergone a number of major facelifts, three of which occurred in the 1990s and have resulted in its present form. The first came shortly after the 1990 home season, when the Tyser Tower press box — a fantastic five-tier, 90-foot high, 160-foot long structure — was built on the stadium's south rim. Tyser Tower accommodates 300 exterior luxury seats, a hospitality suite with theater-style seating, a spacious working press area, television and radio booths, and a photo deck.

Construction has been completed on a beautiful new football complex — since named the Gossett Football Team House — just beyond the east end zone. This $7 million building houses football coaching offices and meeting areas, academic computer lab, locker rooms, weight facility, and a medical support area. A bronze Terrapin sits in front of the team house, its installation coming in 1992 as part of the celebration of the 100th year of football at the university. Following the 1994 campaign, Byrd's seating capacity increased by more than 12,000 to its current level of 48,055 when a massive upper deck was added on the stadium's north side. The cost for the latest renovation exceeded $45 million.

The refurbishing of Byrd included new restrooms, bleachers and the stadium's first formal entranceway off of Field House Drive. The Gossett Football Team House, Tyser Tower, concession stands, restrooms and stadium portals, designed by H.O.K. Architects of Kansas City, are enclosed in sand-molded brick that matches the Williamsburg-style brick used on most of Maryland's 335 buildings. The brick gives the contemporary architecture a timeless veneer and unity with the university's traditional Georgian look.

HOME OF THE TERPS

Byrd Highlights

1950 Byrd Stadium is constructed at a cost of $1 million. The original capacity was 34,680, but could be boosted to more than 50,000 with temporary bleachers around the rim of the stadium.

1953 Byrd is home to the national champion Terrapin football team.

1955 In a game billed as the "Best of the East" vs. the "Best of the West," Maryland defeated No. 1-ranked UCLA 7-0. Historians called that game one of the greatest of the decade.

1957 Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Phillip visited while former Terp head coach Jim Tatum returned to the scene of his greatest coaching triumphs. The Terps went on to upset North Carolina in what then head coach Tommy Mont later called his finest moment as coach.

1974 The legendary Bear Bryant returned to College Park with his third-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide on Sept. 14. Temporary bleachers were installed for only the second time in stadium history to accommodate 54,412 fans, then the largest crowd ever at Byrd. Later in the season, on Oct. 11, the second-largest crowd (49,647) in Byrd history watched the 15th-ranked Terps defeat 17th-ranked NC State 20-10.

1975 The Byrd Stadium attendance record of 58,973 was set when 14th-ranked Maryland hosted ninth-ranked Penn State.

1983 Byrd Stadium played host to its second-largest crowd, 54,715, as the 17th-ranked Terps met No. 20 West Virginia.

1985 The Terps, ranked No. 1 in the preseason by Sport magazine, set the all-time school home attendance record, averaging 49,385 for five home games.

1990 Construction began following the last home football game of the season on what was the first major athletic construction on campus in 35 years. The Byrd Stadium refurbishment was the first of its kind to be done without the supervision of Curley Byrd.

1994 Following the end of the football season, renovations continued with the addition of an upper deck.

1995 Seating capacity is 48,055 — an increase of 12,000 — following the completion of the upper deck on the stadium's north side. As needed, bleachers can increase the seating capacity to 62,000.

GOSSETT TEAM HOUSE

Whether they are taking advantage of the academic computer lab, spacious weight room, or state-of-the-art sports medicine area, football players at the University of Maryland are provided the finest in facilities at the Gossett Football Team House.

Located at the east end of Byrd Stadium, the 46,000-square foot building is an all-purpose complex that combines football function with imaginative design. Truly the "home" of the football Terps, the $7 million Gossett Football Team House features a first-class locker room, coaching offices, multiple meeting rooms, a strength and conditioning center, computer lab, medical facilities, audio-visual center, and equipment areas. It was designed by the same firm (H.O.K. of Kansas City) that has performed the architectural work on some of America's premier collegiate and professional sports facilities.

The Gossett Team House is conveniently located at the east end of Byrd Stadium.

Much of Maryland's storied football history is on display when you enter the Gossett Team House.

Upon entering the main doors, student-athletes and visitors alike are greeted by an impressive reception area highlighting some of the great players and great moments in Maryland's storied football history. Nearby are coaching offices that overlook Byrd Stadium through oversized windows, as well as multiple meeting areas and conference rooms. A Terrapin Terrace, which surrounds the second-floor offices, is available for outdoor functions.

On the lower level, student-athletes make their strength and conditioning home in the 7,000-square-foot strength center under skylights that reveal more than 12 tons of workout machinery. The spacious dressing area features a double locker and footlocker for every player. The layout of the ground floor allows easy access to the many amenities the building has to offer. The locker rooms, which house a sauna and shower facilities, are less than 100 feet away from the second-floor conference areas. The nine conference areas are interconnecting and feature the latest in audio-visual equipment, some of which is available in only a handful of NCAA football programs.

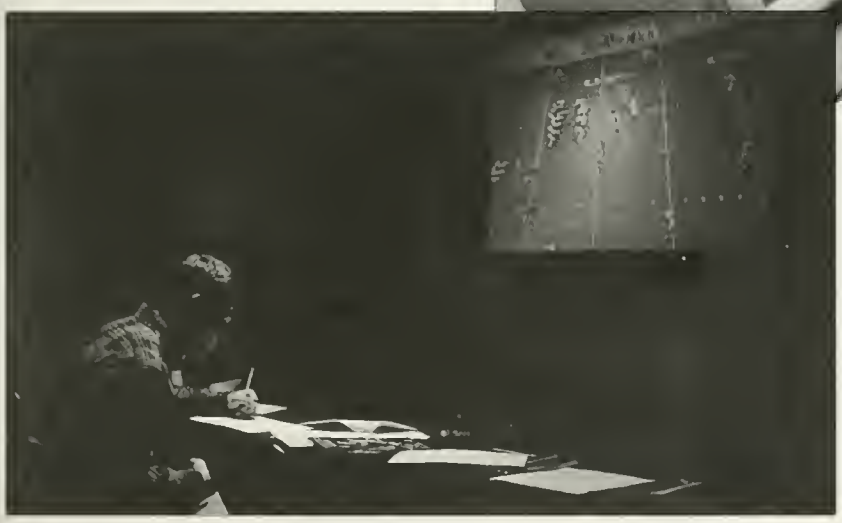
As an integral part of the Byrd Stadium complex, the Gossett Football Team House is situated in the middle of campus and is within walking distance of dorms and dining areas. Both the practice fields and Byrd Stadium field are immediately outside the locker room door, or nearby. The steps leading down to the complex's front door face Cole Field House and the home of Maryland's outstanding academic support unit.

Each phase of the building — from the 3,500 square foot medical and hydrotherapy rooms, to strength center, to office suites — was designed to teach and support football excellence.

The building is named for Barry and Mary Gossett, long-time Terrapin supporters who have given generously to the athletic and academic programs at the University of Maryland.

A high-tech video lab is one of the many amenities of the Gossett Team House.



The Gossett Team House features multiple rooms for team and position meetings.

A spacious weight room is located on the lower level.

TERPS ON RADIO

All of Maryland's games are heard live on the Maryland Terrapins' radio network, which boasts one of the broadest coverage areas in collegiate sports. The production and sales of the broadcasts are being overseen for the fifth year by one of the largest and most aggressive sports marketing groups in the country, Learfield Sports of Jefferson City, Mo. In addition to the University of Maryland, Learfield Sports holds the radio broadcast rights to University of Missouri, University of Iowa, University of Alabama, Michigan State University, Indiana University, Purdue University, University of Wisconsin, University of Arizona, University of Oklahoma and Oklahoma State University.

Maryland's broadcasts can be accessed on the World Wide Web at www.gamecruiser.com or via the Terps' official athletic web site, www.umterps.com.

Johnny Holliday and Ken Broo will be mikeside for all Terp games.

Johnny Holliday — Play-by-Play

Johnny Holliday, now in his 21st year as "Voice of the Terps," is considered one of the finest play-by-play announcers in the country. In addition to calling the action for the Maryland football and basketball teams, Holliday also hosts the Ron Vanderlinden and Gary Williams television shows. As the Terps' director of broadcasting, he also handles a myriad of speaking duties within the athletic department, ranging from banquets to alumni functions to golf outings.

His long list of credits includes ABC's coverage of the 1996 Summer Olympics and the Winter and Summer Olympics in 1984, 1988 and 1994. In addition, he has covered championship boxing, the Masters, the USFL Game of the Week, and the Liberty and Aloha bowls.

Holliday's announcing career allows him to lay claim as Washington's most versatile broadcaster, and among the best nationally. Whether it be in radio, where he was named America's No. 1 disc jockey during his rock 'n roll deejay days, to his public address duties with the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, and Golden State Warriors, to his work in Washington television for the Senators and Bullets, Holliday makes a complicated business look easy.

He brings that ease to the Maryland coach's television shows on Home Team Sports, the region's premier sports channel. He also is host of Redskin general manager Charley Casserly's show. He also does special events for HTS that include baseball, tennis, basketball and track and field. He is among the pioneer broadcasters for the sport of women's basketball, earning a Distinguished Service Award from ACC women's basketball officials for his work on that league's women's basketball telecasts.

A native of Miami, Fla., Holliday began his broadcasting career in Perry, Ga., and through the years has worked in four of the nation's prime radio markets: Cleveland, New York, San Francisco and Washington. At one time, he was recognized as America's No. 1 disc jockey. He is a member of the Rock 'N Roll Hall of Fame.

In addition to his broadcasting accomplishments, he also has been extremely successful raising money for charity. Washingtonian magazine honored him as a Washingtonian of the Year for his many civic activities. His basketball and softball teams, the Radio Wonders, have raised more than $1 million for charity. He is involved in Special Olympics, Catholic Charities, Operation Smile, and the Boy Scouts of America. He has served as television host for the Easter Seals, Muscular Dystrophy, March of Dimes and Leukemia telethons.

A year ago he was honored by the Greater Washington, D.C. Chapter of Operation Smile with its 1998 Smile Award for his outstanding service to the community. In 1995, he was the recipient of the University of Maryland "M Club" Distinguished Citizen Award. He is an honorary member of the university's chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa.

Holliday and his wife, Mary Claire, are the proud parents of three daughters: Kellie, a physician who resides in Bel Air, Md., with her husband Steve, who also is a physician; Tracie, a neo-natal nurse at Shady Grove Hospital who resides in Potomac, Md., with her husband Chris, an attorney; and Moira, who attends St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia.

Ken Broo — Color Analyst

Ken Broo, sports director and primary sports anchor at WUSA-TV (Channel 9) in Washington, D.C., is in his third season as the color analyst for Terps football. Broo has been at WUSA since 1996. He previously was sports director at WKRC-TV in Cincinnati from 1990-96. His broad football background dates to his days as a radio analyst for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1981-87. He also was the radio play-by-play voice for the Cincinnati Bengals from 1990-96. From 1977-81, he was the play-by-play voice for the Tulsa men's basketball team. He also has covered college basketball for NBC, called various events for ESPN, and served as play-by-play announcer for the Tulsa Oilers minor league hockey franchise.

Actualities

Broadcast quality sound bites from Coach Ron Vanderlinden are available each week on the Maryland Sportsline. Call 301-441-2227 for previews and recaps from each game. This service is updated every Monday and Thursday morning

Credentials

Requests for media and photo credentials should be faxed or mailed on official letterhead to the University of Maryland Media Relations Office (FAX: 301-314-9094) at least one week prior to the event. Accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Requests are accepted from sports editors and sports directors only. When time permits, working credentials will be mailed. When this is not possible, they will be left at the Press Will Call entrance (Gate H) at Byrd Stadium.

E-mail Service

Football releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Kevin Messenger at kmess@wam.umd.edu. List TERP NEWS in the subject heading, and include the name of your media outlet and phone number in your message. (This is a media service only).

Faxback Service

University of Maryland football information, including releases, statistics, rosters and the most recent game statistical summary, can be accessed 24 hours a day through the ACC faxback service.

Parking

Game day press parking is located in the Union Lane Garage which is adjacent to Cole Field House and along Field House Drive. The parking garage is best accessed from the Stadium Drive entrance to campus. Access is via pass only and is available on a limited basis.

Photography Regulations

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers should obtain an armband from the media relations assistant on the field below Section 28 to gain admittance to the field. Under NCAA and ACC rules, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside of the restraining lines surrounding the playing field.

Player Interviews

All player interviews must be arranged through Dave Haglund, Kevin Messenger or Kevin Foley. Players have been instructed not to participate in interviews unless they have been arranged through the Media Relations Office. Interviews will be conducted Monday through Thursday. No interviews will be allowed on Sunday or Friday. Player phone numbers will not be released, and members of the media are asked not to attempt to contact student-athletes on the telephone. Players are not available for live call-in radio shows.

Postgame Interviews

Head coach Ron Vanderlinden and selected players will be brought to the team meeting room on the second floor of the Gossett Football Team House for postgame interviews. The team room is accessed through the front door of the complex, located one level above the playing field. Please enter the glass doors and follow the hallway to the team room on the right. Interviews with the visiting team coach and players will be coordinated by the opponent SID staff. The interview area for the opponent coach is in the weight room of the Varsity Team House, located outside of the stadium on the opposite side of the field from the Tyser Tower Press Box.

Practice Coverage

Practices are open to the media with few exceptions. Media wishing to attend practice should contact the Media Relations Office in advance. All members of the media are asked to view practice from the sloped portion of the field (along Stadium Drive). Once the team goes into pads in the fall, TV B-roll and still photographers will be allowed to shoot warm-ups, stretching drills and the first two periods of practice. Team meetings before, during and after practice are private. Practices generally begin at 3:45 p.m. and conclude at 6 p.m. The team does not practice on Sunday during the season.

Ron Vanderlinden Interviews

Coach Ron Vanderlinden will be available to the media at his weekly Monday noon media luncheons, which are held on the second floor of the Tyser Tower Press Box. Coach Vanderlinden will also be available on the weekly ACC Teleconference (913-981-5507) held each Wednesday. Coach Vanderlinden also will meet with interested media members on the field following each practice.

Press Box

The press box is located on the south side of Byrd Stadium in Tyser Tower. Access to Levels 3 (print) and Level 4 (radio, television booths) is via elevators.

Statistical Services

Complete team and individual statistics by quarter; play-by-play; and postgame notes and quotes will be provided to the working media. Scores of other college games are provided before, during and after the game. An internal PA system will provide updated statistics and notes throughout the game.

Telephones

A limited number of telephones are available in the Tyser Tower Press Box (calling card required). Any additional telephone requests should be directed to Gary Parker, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-7127. List Dave Haglund or Kevin Messenger as the contact person for all installations.

Terrapin Fanphone

Information on Maryland athletics, including actualities with head coach Ron Vanderlinden, can be obtained by calling the Terrapin Fanphone at (301) 314-TERP.

Video Services

Highlights of Maryland home games not televised will be distributed via satellite. In addition, the Atlantic Coast Conference uplinks game highlights and selected interviews from each ACC school on Wednesday afternoons during the season.
